UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT OF D.C.

RESPONSE TO MAGISTRATE JUDGE RECOMMENDATION

Twice now I have been told in court filings that a declaratory judgment is unnecessary because the ruling would not repair or redress anything of consequence. I find it jarring that family relationships, my most valuable and precious things I have, are so coldly dismissed. I guess my 67 years of learning and life experiences were in error. When the Eastern District of Arkansas throws out my complaint, perhaps someone there could at least write to me and let me know what you have found which is more valuable.

Judge Marshall, you do what you think is right - I have no additional evidence to present or arguments to make. I really have no burning desire to continue engaging with the U.S. legal system and, at this point, I see no reason to pursue any legal action beyond this complaint.

Indeed, I would be happy to never encounter another lawyer, judge, or earthly tribunal. I am content to wait to for the Last Day, when I will meet the judges and lawyers of the US legal system before the Eternal Judge of the quick and the dead, where we will each receive our declaratory judgment.

DATED this 30th day of July, 2025.
