have faded away in the past, what would you do after? o it'll be a lot easier to mobilize / endure if I'm elected president * will you encourage your supporters to vote for HRC if you don't win nomination? o we're not a movement where I can snap my fingers and tell you what to do, you make your decisions yourself o if we lose and HRC wins, it's incumbent upon her to tell people who have serious misgivings about her Wall St $, etc, that she thinks the US should take on private insurance companies and pass Medicare for all, tuition free public colleges, she's going to have to explain to millions of young people that climate change is not going to be solved by incrementalism, pass a carbon tax. o incumbent upon HRC to present an agenda for working class, not just wealthy * Tim Robbins, Rosario Dawson have said things-what role do you have if HRC in nominee o good question, I work with GOP in Senate, have seen what they do in the House o GOP has moved so far to the right, unrecognizable, don't believe in climate change, want to end ACA o I will do everything in my power to make sure no Republican gets into the WH * how will you make sure you can implement CIR where undocumented immigrants like my parents aren't treated as second-class citizens o many are exploited now, by employers, living in shadows, I believe we need CIR o I will use exec powers if Congress don't act to make your parents safe o I disagree with Obama, will end deportations * how will you actually work with Congress o actually passed more amendments with Republicans than anyone else o passed comprehensive vets legislation with bipartisan support * OFA didn't do a whole lot, what could you do? o I talked to Obama about this, it is tough o President can help bring ordinary people together in grassroots, pressure Congress o because Obama is such a decent guy, he actually believed he could negotiate in good faith with Republicans-he was wrong, they never had any intention of doing so, it took Obama years to learn that. he knows it now. I will know that when I get there * soda tax opposition, we have a lot of constraints, so what would you do to fund pre-school? o I believe absolutely, priority is to establish high quality pre-K in every state o at time of massive income inequality, soda tax hurts the poor the most o it has to be funded in a progressive way * collateral consequences to incarceration o we should be embarrassed by how many people we have in jail o [mass incarceration platform] * voting for crime bill mistake? o this question has been asked literally a million times o it had bad provisions, it also had VAWA, ban on assault weapons * worst vote? o I shouldn't have voted to deregulate derivatives o HRC supported DOMA * under current law can US strike ISIS anywhere in the world? o no, I am confident we'll get new AUMF o I will not get us involved in perpetual warfare in Middle East * would you keep kill list as President? o we have right to defend ourselves, has to be done constitutionally * is what is being done now constitutional? o in general, yes * are 250 special operators to Syria permissible? o yes, bottom line is ISIS must be destroyed, not through American troops on ground * how will you fight for abortion access in every state? o totally support women's right to choose, expand planned parenthood o republicans totally hypocritical * SCOTUS TX law would gut Roe, how big a deal? o of course it's a big deal, why it goes without saying I'll nominate people to SCOTUS who will overturn CU and support Roe * HRC ticket / administration, or her on your ticket? o let me answer that exactly as you knew I would o we'll take a look at the end of the process From: Brinster, Jeremy Sent: Monday, April 25, 2016 8:03 PM To: Comm_D Subject: Video Request: Sanders MSNBC Town Hall just started

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

CINDY YOUNG,

Defendant.

No. 23-cr-241 (GMH)

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Defendant was convicted in August 2024 of four misdemeanors committed at the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021, and thereafter received a presidential pardon on January 20, 2025. On August 4, 2025, the Court granted permission for Plaintiff—now representing herself—to file a second motion under Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure seeking “relief from the judgment, vacating the conviction, or, in the alternative, a new trial,” claiming one of the jurors was dishonest during voir dire. ECF No. 128 at 1. (As discussed below, her first Rule 33 motion, which also asserted misconduct during voir dire by that same juror, was denied on October 5, 2024, see United States v. Young, No. 23-cr-241, 2024 WL 4583101 (D.D.C. Oct. 25, 2024)). She has also filed a request “to unseal the name of the presiding juror,” also known as the jury foreperson¹—whom she believes to be the allegedly dishonest juror—or, in the alternative, to provide her “a copy of the unredacted jury verdict form” filed on August 9, 2024, ECF No. 127; a motion for leave of court to file a bar complaint against that person, who is an attorney,
