Barbara,

The night slips long into the twilight of morning, when the sun reaches up from the east, to caress your grief away. We have journeyed for, so long, and yet we are here, gazing over the hill, into the promised land. There are probably many still, too stubborn to enter the new land of milk and honey, yet we must persist. I have been attending, what has been coined, as a "Listening Session". I am no longer naïve to the way these institutions shape-shift, when the light of truth is shown. Then, when the light passes, they shift back into the shape of "the Beast". The entire prison model, and mentality has to be imagined differently. Right now, we cannot practically, defund the police, but in a future of healthy, educated people, why would we need police for more than keeping a watchful eye, and rescuing kittens from neighborhood trees? This raising of virtue is our climb and ascension to meet our creator in the sky.

Good, strong supporters, like you, are our hands and feet on the outside, locally. Please reach out in a campaign to your local churches, and whatever groups, you're part of, and tell the story of how J 6 is, like myself, are doing the work from the inside to change the "us vs them" culture. Jesus is in us, to free all from the bonds of oppression, even our own oppression of self.

Thank you, very much, for your love and support. Even when I am more like Jonah being told to go prophecy to Ninevah. This is my time in the whale, is it not?

Kindest regards,

Marc Anthony Bru
