P R O C E E D I N G S

(Whereupon, the morning session of this proceeding was reported by Sara Wick, and is bound under separate cover.)

THE COURT: While getting the jurors ready, I wanted to talk to you about how late we can go today.

Mr. Hopkins, you haven't had a chance to talk to the court reporter yet?

COURTROOM DEPUTY: [SHOOK HEAD]

THE COURT: Can you all go til 5:00 today?

MR. WELCH: Yes.

(Nods around government's counsel table.)

THE COURT: I was going to suggest resuming tomorrow at 9, but the second batch -- so the 48 to 80, having them report at 10:30, thinking that we would probably have a few left. Does that make sense to everyone?

MR. WELCH: Sure.

MS. BERKOWER: Sounds good.

THE COURT: Okay. We will take one break in the afternoon, around 3:30-ish, somewhere in there. If someone needs a break earlier, let me know. And then we will see how much we can cover until 5.

I've said a couple of times we need to qualify 36. I'm wrong. We need to qualify 40, with the alternates. Check me on that but I'm pretty sure we need to do 40.

1 Because if all of you strike different alternate jurors, and
2 you exercise four strikes, then the four alternates are
3 gone. So we need eight to fill the alternate group. Does
4 that make sense?

5 MR. WELCH: Uh-huh. So check me on the math. So
6 that means we need to qualify at least 40, maybe 41,
7 depending on what hour of the day it is, maybe 42. Right
8 now I think we have 10 qualified; is that right?

9 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Yes, ma'am.

10 THE COURT: Okay. I appreciate you all moving
11 things. You all have gotten through a lot.

12 Mr. Nestler, we probably need to probably stop a 13 little before 5, unless you all can stay a few minutes late.
14 I do want to see the PowerPoint.

15 MR. NESTLER: We can stay as late as the Court
16 needs.

17 THE COURT: You too, Mr. Welch?

18 MR. WELCH: I didn't hear the last thing.

19 THE COURT: I said I want to address the 20 PowerPoint at the end of the day. So the question is, Can 21 we stay a few minutes after 5 for me to see that quickly?

22 MR. WELCH: Yeah. Yep.

23 THE COURT: Are you all ready?

24 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Juror number 0946.

25 THE COURT: Let me tell them what the questions

1 are. Give me three seconds.

2 0946, this juror has said yes to 1, 3, 4, 18 and
3 19. There's also one question I had. I think somewhere in 4 here there's an architect in the Capitol. Did you all see
5 that?

6 MR. WELCH: Yes.

7 THE COURT: I don't know whether he or she 8 qualifies as an employee of the Congress. But I think by 9 statute, employees of the Congress are exempt from service.
10 I need to look at the statute. Do you all know what I am
11 talking about?

12 [No response]

13 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, juror number 0946.
14 (Prospective juror steps up.)

15 THE COURT: Good afternoon, sir. Just one moment.
16 Bear with us. Sorry to keep you waiting.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure.

18 THE COURT: Counsel, can we speak briefly?
19 (Bench conference.)

20 THE COURT: Can you all hear me?

21 MS. BERKOWER: Yes.

22 THE COURT: So the oath that the jurors were given
23 this morning, I assume covers through this proceeding as 24 well. Do you all think differently? In abundance of 25 caution, we can with start reminding them they are still

1 under oath, but my sense is once they are sworn in, they are
2 sworn in for the day. Do you all have any differing view?

3 MS. BERKOWER: That was our view, Your Honor, that
4 the one oath would cover the entire day.

5 THE COURT: Do you agree, Mr. Welch?

6 MR. WELCH: Yes, Your Honor. I would agree. It's 7 all part of the same panel. If we have a different group
8 tomorrow, they obviously wouldn't have heard something.

9 THE COURT: All right. Well, in that case I am
10 not going to start doing that today, but would if you all
11 had objected. But since you don't, we will just proceed
12 with them still under oath. Okay. Thank you.

13 MS. BERKOWER: Thank you.

14 (Bench conference concluded.)

15 THE COURT: All right, sir. You are 0946.
16 Correct?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

18 THE COURT: All right. So you have answered yes
19 to the question that you live or work near the Capitol. Can 20 you explain, please?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work at 12th, between E and 22 F, Northwest. I wasn't sure if that was in the --

23 THE COURT: Were you working there on January 6th?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. No, I wasn't.

25 THE COURT: All right. And you live somewhere

1 else?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I live in northwest D.C.

3 THE COURT: All right. Were you in D.C. on
4 January 6th?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Were you inconvenienced in any way by
7 the events at the Capitol?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

9 THE COURT: All right. You also said you followed
10 the news about the January 6th events at the Capitol; and 11 that you've seen news either about Mr. Reffitt or other 12 individuals at the Capitol. Can you elaborate on that,
13 please?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure. I wouldn't say I was,
15 like, directly following it. It just sort of was, you know,
16 everywhere. If you turn on CNN, I read the Wall Street
17 Journal and the Washington Post every day.

18 THE COURT: So you are following headlines and top
19 news stories, but not doing your own digging for information
20 about --

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. It was just sort of,
22 you know, a little bit in your face. So it was unavoidable
23 for the time being.

24 THE COURT: And has that been the case since
25 January 6th of 2021?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think so. You see
2 things -- I just see headlines pop up here and there like
3 Congress is doing you know an investigation or, you know,
4 obviously on the anniversary of January 6th, you know,
5 President Biden spoke. But I'm not following it like a case
6 or something.

7 THE COURT: Okay. And if I can ask you just to 8 keep your voice up a little bit and maybe lean forward,
9 because the microphone is in front of you.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure.

11 THE COURT: All right. So as you sit here now, do
12 you recall whether you've heard anything specifically about 13 the defendant in this case, Mr. Guy Wesley Reffitt or any 14 other named individual?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think I heard his name
16 specifically.

17 THE COURT: Do you recall other individuals you've 18 heard about?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not by name.

20 THE COURT: All right. Have you formed any 21 opinion based on what you've seen or heard in the news or 22 elsewhere about the allegations in this case?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really.

24 THE COURT: What about the guilt or innocence of 25 any of these individuals?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really.

2 THE COURT: When you say "not really," what do you
3 mean?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a lawyer. So I look at it
5 sort of, like, you know, I wouldn't think anything until I
6 heard what the particular facts of the case were.

7 THE COURT: Tell me, where are you a lawyer?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't technically practice
9 law now. I was a lawyer at Shearman Sterling for 16 years.
10 Now I am a principal at Deloitte Tax. I do corporate M&A 11 tax work.

12 THE COURT: All right. And what did you do when 13 you were in private practice?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Tax work too.

15 THE COURT: All right. Have you done any criminal
16 work?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No criminal work.

18 THE COURT: All right. Based on what you either
19 learned in law school or based on your experience as a
20 lawyer in private practice, do you think you would have any 21 trouble following the instructions that I give you, even if 22 they were inconsistent with what you thought the law was?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. No, it shouldn't.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 You also stated that either you or your family

1 members or close friends work in law enforcement.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My sister-in-law's husband is
3 in the Coast Guard; that was it. I wasn't sure if that was 4 in the perimeter, so to speak.

5 THE COURT: Yeah. Anything about the fact that
6 that person, that relative, works for the federal government
7 make you lean towards the government in this case?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

9 THE COURT: All right. You understand, as 10 Mr. Reffitt sits here, he's innocent until proven guilty?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: And the government would have to prove 13 him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt to convict him of the 14 charges here?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Do you think you could apply those 17 instructions fairly --

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: -- and impartially?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yep.

21 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Berkower?

22 MS. BERKOWER: Good afternoon.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

24 MS. BERKOWER: Just a quick follow-up question
25 about your time at Shearman and Sterling, the law firm. Did

1 you do litigation there?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I was a tax attorney. So
3 I did mostly M&A transactions and internal restructurings
4 but no litigation.

5 MS. BERKOWER: Great. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: Any questions, Mr. Welch?

7 MR. WELCH: No thank you, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir. You are 9 excused, from the courtroom that is.

10 (Prospective juror steps down.)

11 THE COURT: All right. The next juror will be 12 juror number 3 -- 0322. This juror has answered yes to 13 questions 1, 3 and 4.

14 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, juror number 0322.
15 (Prospective juror steps up.)

16 THE COURT: Good afternoon, ma'am.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hello. How are you?

18 THE COURT: Doing well. How are you?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Fine. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: All right. I'm guessing because you
21 are here, you actually want to serve, but I want to make 22 sure that you know, given your age, you have the right to 23 not to serve, if you choose not to.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do know that.

25 THE COURT: I just wanted to make sure.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I have friends that are
2 asking me, Why are you doing this?

3 THE COURT: Well, we are very grateful that you're 4 here doing your civic duty, even though you don't have to.

5 All right. Well, let me ask you some follow-up
6 questions about the answers you gave to your -- to the 7 questions I asked you in the other courtroom. First, you
8 say that you live or you work near the U.S. Capitol?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I live in Capitol Hill.

10 THE COURT: How far from the Capitol do you live?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I live on Eighth, the number
12 8, Street.

13 THE COURT: Were you home on January 6th of 2020?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Were you inconvenienced in any way by 16 the events of that day?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You mean on a personal level?

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

20 THE COURT: Was anyone you know in the 21 neighborhood or elsewhere?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, if you say
23 inconvenienced, some people were frightened.

24 THE COURT: Anyone you know closely?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not particularly, no.

1 THE COURT: All right. You've also said that you
2 followed the news about the January 6th events at the
3 Capitol.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: And that you've heard or seen news
6 either about the defendant in this case, Mr. Reffitt, or 7 other individuals who were at the Capitol on January 6th.
8 Can you tell us about that?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I'm a person who watches
10 the news. So I want to be educated and know what is 11 happening in our community and our world. I didn't know --
12 I don't know any particular person, but I did see the news.

13 THE COURT: Do you recognize Mr. Reffitt, who's 14 seated here with his mask down?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do not.

16 THE COURT: All right. Is there anyone in 17 particular you remember by name, who you've read about or 18 seen on the news?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You mean besides our, like,
20 Senators and people like that?

21 THE COURT: Right. I'm talking about, you know,
22 the individuals who breached the Capitol that day or any 23 criminal defendants in particular.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I don't recognize any 25 names.

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 Do you know individuals who were in the Capitol
3 that day, whether they be members of Congress or their 4 staffs or police?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I don't.

6 THE COURT: Have you formed any opinion about the 7 guilt of the people who were involved in the events at the 8 Capitol on January 6th?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I haven't formed any opinion
10 about individual people.

11 THE COURT: Have you formed an opinion generally
12 about the Capitol events?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: On certain levels, yes.

14 THE COURT: And can you explain a little bit more
15 why that is?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I wasn't happy to see
17 what happened to our Capitol and to the people who were in 18 it.

19 THE COURT: Understanding that, do you think that 20 you could put your feelings aside about what happened that
21 day and decide this case solely, based on the evidence you
22 hear in the courtroom and the instructions I give you?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I think I could be a
24 very fair juror. I think each person needs to be evaluated
25 and judged by their own actions. So I'm not grouping

1 everybody together and painting them with the same brush.

2 THE COURT: All right. And you understand as
3 Mr. Reffitt sits here, he's presumed innocent.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Berkower?

6 MS. BERKOWER: Nothing for the government, Your
7 Honor.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Welch?

9 MR. WELCH: No questions. Thank you.

10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, ma'am, very
11 much.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, I was hoping for more
13 questions.

14 (Prospective juror steps down.)

15 THE COURT: All right. The next juror will be
16 juror 1009. That juror has answered yes to questions 2, 3,
17 4 and 19.

18 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, juror number 1009.

19 (Prospective juror steps up.)

20 THE COURT: Good afternoon, sir.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

22 THE COURT: If you feel comfortable taking off
23 your mask, please do. And if you could please keep your 24 voice up, the microphone is right there in front of you, so
25 the court reporter can hear you.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

2 THE COURT: All right.

3 So you have answered yes to either you or someone
4 you know has a direct or indirect connection to the events
5 at U.S. Capitol on January 6th, 2021; is that correct?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: And who is that?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So I have two friends who work
9 on the Capitol in Senate offices. And then my stepmother is 10 a -- was in the Trump administration. She was the 11 ambassador to Canada, as well as subsequently the ambassador
12 of the UN.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 The two friends who you mentioned who were working
15 in the Capitol, were they there on January 6th?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm for sure one of them was.
17 I believe the other one was not on the Capitol that day.

18 THE COURT: Have you spoken to either of them
19 about what happened that day?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Somewhat, yes. Not in a ton
21 of detail.

22 THE COURT: And the information you've learned
23 from them, is it specific in nature or the kinds of things
24 that you also read about in the paper?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The kinds of things I also

1 read about in the paper, yeah.

2 THE COURT: Simply because you know these two
3 individuals, maybe one of whom wasn't there that day but it
4 sounds like one was, would that lead you to favor one side
5 over the other in this case?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't believe so.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 You've also said yes to question 3, that you
9 followed the news about the January 6th events at the 10 Capitol. And I am just curious, have you followed the news
11 in a general kind of way or have you done research yourself
12 and stayed on top of the events?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would say I am pretty --
14 just interested in politics in general. I use Twitter often 15 just for reading. So I'd say I've seen a good amount of the 16 news coverage. I haven't necessarily seeked out anything on 17 this more than any other current event, but I would say I am
18 fairly on top of most of the news.

19 THE COURT: So you follow daily news?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 You also say that you have seen or heard news
23 about either the defendant, Mr. Reffitt, or other
24 individuals who were at the Capitol on January 6th. Can you
25 explain that, please?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

2 I believe I saw a Tweet just a couple days ago
3 saying that this trial was about to happen. I did not read
4 anything more than that. But I did see just an overview of 5 the charges, and that the trial was occurring. And then
6 I've, you know, like I said, just stayed on top of general
7 news about various defendants.

8 THE COURT: Which defendants in particular?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not anybody that I can 10 remember to name, but just the goings on of how -- of who -- 11 you know, just of the news, I would say. Not anything in 12 particular that I can remember.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 Anything that you can remember about this case in 15 particular, whether it be hearings or rulings or --

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: All I remember was the Tweet
17 had mentioned there was the taking a gun to the Capitol
18 charge, was one of the charges; that's what I remember.

19 THE COURT: Do you remember who sent the Tweet?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do not. It was just on my 21 time -- it was just re-Tweeted into my timeline. I'm not 22 sure who -- by who.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 What other sources do you follow in terms of news?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Primarily Twitter. And then I

1 follow kind of a broad range of people on Twitter from both
2 sides of the aisle and news, Jake Tapper, and other news
3 sources, I would say.

4 THE COURT: All right. So you've heard the 5 admonition I gave you in the ceremonial courtroom about not
6 paying attention to headlines and Tweets or anything?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've stopped.

8 THE COURT: You stopped?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Can you stop the immediate alerts so
11 you are not seeing additional headlines?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 Anything -- well, based on anything you've read or 15 seen have you formed any fixed views about this case or the 16 events of January 6th?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think so. I believe I
18 could -- you know, carry out my duty as a juror to bear a
19 clean mind into the trial.

20 THE COURT: Do you believe you could come into 21 this courtroom and wipe the slate clean of what you've seen
22 and heard on the news and decide the case base solely on 23 what you see and hear in here?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do.

25 THE COURT: You understand Mr. Reffitt is presumed

1 innocent as he sits here now?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: And the government has to prove its 4 case beyond a reasonable doubt to convict him of any of the 5 charges?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: You also say you, a family member,
8 close friend is a lawyer or a law student or worked in a law
9 office?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct. I have several 11 friends who are lawyers. My dad was also a trained lawyer.

12 THE COURT: And what kind of lawyers were they?
13 Your dad and your friends?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My dad became a general
15 counsel at a company. He did not practice any law outside
16 of that, and he does not continue to practice law.

17 My cousin-in-law who, you know, I am also friends
18 with is a clerk in the Jag Corps currently in D.C. And then
19 I have several other friends -- I have a couple other
20 friends that are in law school that I am not quite as close 21 with.

22 THE COURT: Do you talk criminal legal issues with 23 any of those folks?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've discussed criminal legal
25 issues with my cousin-in-law in the Jag Corps. Again, more

1 generally. Not anything super specific, just out of
2 curiosity of his job and general curiosity about the law.

3 THE COURT: Have you talked to any of them about
4 this case?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have not.

6 THE COURT: Not this case, the Capitol events,
7 rather.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have not.

9 THE COURT: Anything about those conversations
10 that make you feel you can't follow my instructions in this
11 case?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 Okay. Ms. Berkower?

15 MS. BERKOWER: Good afternoon.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

17 MS. BERKOWER: Just a few follow-up questions for 18 you. I think you said that your mother -- your stepmother
19 held a political position in the Trump administration?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

21 MS. BERKOWER: Was she still in that position on
22 January 6th?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She was.

24 MS. BERKOWER: Was she at the Capitol on January
25 6th?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm fairly certain she was
2 not. We have never discussed anything related to January
3 6th, the day of January 6th, with her.

4 MS. BERKOWER: So you don't know one way or the 5 other whether she was there or not there?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm pretty confident she 7 wasn't. I am fairly certain she would have been in New 8 York.

9 MS. BERKOWER: Okay. After January 6th when she 10 was still in that position, was she involved in any of the,
11 like, you know administration-related events in the fall-out
12 of that incident?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have not discussed anything
14 related to January 6th with her, so I cannot say for certain 15 either way.

16 MS. BERKOWER: And you said that you follow a
17 number -- you know, you are very interested in politics and 18 you use Twitter and you've seen news about this.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-huh.

20 MS. BERKOWER: Who on Twitter do you follow that 21 is posting about this January 6th?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure. So I would say Jake
23 Tapper, Jim Roberts would be another one, Jonah Goldberg, 24 Scott Adams would be another one. I'd say those are the 25 ones that immediately come to mind. I follow -- those are

1 the ones that would come immediately to mind that discuss
2 January 6th.

3 MS. BERKOWER: Understood.

4 Did you say whether or not you could recall whose
5 Tweet you saw concerning this particular case?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I cannot. I cannot remember.
7 I mean -- if I had to guess it would probably be Jim
8 Roberts, because I know he's been Tweeting about January 6th
9 events more specifically than, I think, the others. But I
10 can't say for certain whether that was it.

11 MS. BERKOWER: When's the last time you think you
12 saw information on Twitter about January 6th?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I believe I saw that Tweet two
14 days ago, maybe. So I would say very recently.

15 MS. BERKOWER: And I know Judge Friedrich asked
16 you if you had formed any fixed views about the events of 17 January 16th (sic) and you said you had not; is that right?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's correct.

19 MS. BERKOWER: Just to follow up on that, though,
20 have you formed an opinion about the guilt or innocence of 21 the people involved in that event?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. No, I mean not -- I would 23 say, no. There's nothing -- I mean, I would say there's 24 nothing that I could determine now based on the guilt or 25 innocence of any single person that was involved in that

1 day.

2 MS. BERKOWER: Have you come to any opinions,
3 though, about the guilt or innocence generally about people
4 who are involved in the events of that day?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um, I mean, I would say that 6 probably -- my opinion as it stands now would be that it was 7 people put themselves in a reckless situation by being 8 there. So I would say that's my general stance on the 9 events of that day.

10 MS. BERKOWER: And it sounds like the events of 11 that day is something you are still interested in; is that 12 right?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. Yes.

14 MS. BERKOWER: So are you going to be able to 15 completely set aside those opinion that people put 16 themselves in a reckless situation by being there when you
17 come to hear evidence in this case?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I believe so. I mean, I think
19 for me it -- you know, I -- my -- I believe that I could put 20 that aside due to, I think, the duty I feel as a -- you
21 know, as a citizen. To be a juror is important, and part of 22 that duty as a citizen. So I do think that I could put that 23 aside as best as I can. I mean -- I believe that it would 24 be sufficient enough to be a juror in the case.

25 MS. BERKOWER: Okay. Just to follow up on that

1 again.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

3 MS. BERKOWER: How confident are you though that
4 you could actually do it. I know you know it is an
5 important civic duty and you know the judge will ask you to 6 do that.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

8 MS. BERKOWER: How confident are you that you
9 could do that?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am confident.

11 MS. BERKOWER: You are confident?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 MS. BERKOWER: You said your father was a general
14 counsel, but I didn't catch what he was a general of.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was a company called Mapco,
16 at the time, and has since become -- certainly it's Alliance
17 Research Partners. He was general counsel probably 30-plus
18 years ago or 20-plus -- at least 20, 25, 30 years ago so.
19 And -- yeah.

20 MS. BERKOWER: May I ask you, how long have you
21 lived in the district?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I moved in -- so six years.
23 2016 is when I moved.

24 MS. BERKOWER: What is your profession? I don't
25 think I understood what was listed.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, so my brothers and I own
2 a professional soccer team in Tulsa, Oklahoma. And I do the
3 data and tech stuff for that full-time remotely from D.C.

4 MS. BERKOWER: Do you have to travel between here
5 and Oklahoma?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do. We are currently out of 7 season. I do have travel plans for home opener in March,
8 March -- so in two weeks I was planning on going to our
9 season opener and then for home opener the following
10 weekend.

11 MS. BERKOWER: And, um, given your stepmother's
12 former position in the Trump administration, does your 13 family make political donations?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They do.

15 MS. BERKOWER: And if you voted to convict the 16 defendant in this case, would you still be welcome at family
17 events?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would, yes.

19 MS. BERKOWER: How confident are you?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am confident in that.

21 MS. BERKOWER: I see you are smiling. Can you
22 explain why?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My father was a major donor to 24 President Trump and other generally more republican-leaning
25 causes, but I don't think that they would put any political

1 affiliations ahead of -- I believe that they are also very
2 duty bound as well about serving the country. And I don't
3 think that any political affiliations would take precedent
4 over my duty as a juror and any decisions that I make in the
5 courtroom.

6 MS. BERKOWER: Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Welch?

8 MR. WELCH: No questions. Thank you.

9 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

11 (Prospective juror steps down.)

12 THE COURT: One moment. Am I correct that the 13 next juror is 1486?

14 MR. WELCH: I have 1312, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: 1312. Okay. I am getting ahead of 16 myself.

17 All right. 1312, this juror said yes to 3 and yes
18 to 4. Okay.

19 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Juror number 1312.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 (Prospective juror steps up.)

22 THE COURT: Good afternoon, sir. If you are 23 comfortable doing so, could you take off your mask?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Of course.

25 THE COURT: Just try to keep your voice up.

1 That's a microphone sitting there in front of you.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Very good.

3 THE COURT: So you have answered yes to question
4 number 3 and question number 4. You said you followed the 5 news about the January 6th events at the Capitol; is that
6 right?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's correct.

8 THE COURT: In what way have you followed it?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just normal newspapers.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Do you read anything beyond
11 newspapers? Are you following it on social media?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

13 THE COURT: What about TV?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

15 THE COURT: Have you followed any news accounts
16 concerning specific individuals, including the defendant,
17 Mr. Reffitt, in this case?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not at all.

19 THE COURT: And I take it you haven't seen
20 anything in the news or elsewhere about the specific 21 allegations in this case?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I don't recognize the 23 name at all, no.

24 THE COURT: Okay. I'm just wondering, based on 25 the news you've reviewed, is this principally at the time of

1 January 6th or have you followed it since that time?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just however it comes through
3 in the normal newspapers.

4 THE COURT: Just normal headlines?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm not researching anything.
6 I am just reading whatever gets shared. Every now and then
7 there is an update.

8 THE COURT: Right. Occasionally those updates are 9 about specific individuals, but as you sit here you don't
10 recall any names of specific individuals?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

12 THE COURT: Do you recognize Mr. Reffitt sitting
13 here in the courtroom?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not at all.

15 THE COURT: Have you formed any opinion about the 16 guilt of the people involved in the Capitol events?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Specifically in this case, not
18 at all. But, I mean, I have certainly formed some opinions
19 based on articles I've read previously, yes.

20 THE COURT: All right. And based on the opinions
21 you formed, do you think that you could put those aside and 22 come into this courtroom and be a fair and impartial juror
23 based solely on what you hear in this courtroom?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. Absolutely. I know
25 nothing about what this case might involve.

1 THE COURT: You don't have strong feelings or
2 opinions one way or the other that would have you come into
3 this case favoring either the government or the defense?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

5 THE COURT: And you have no opinion about
6 Mr. Reffitt's guilt or innocence?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know anything about
8 it. Nope.

9 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Berkower?

10 MS. BERKOWER: Nothing from the government, Your
11 Honor. Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Welch?

13 MR. WELCH: Thank you. [SHAKES HEAD]

14 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir.
15 (Prospective juror steps down.)

16 THE COURT: So this juror, 1486, answered yes to 17 1, 3, 5 and 18.

18 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, juror number 1486.
19 (Prospective juror steps up.)

20 THE COURT: If you could go down to the last --
21 second-to-last seat, right in front of the microphone there.
22 And if -- thank you, sir. Good afternoon.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

24 THE COURT: So looking at your note card here, I
25 see you answered yes to live or work near the Capitol.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-huh. I live on First
2 Street, South --

3 THE COURT: Southwest.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I live near the Capitol.

5 THE COURT: So were you in your home on January
6 6th?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was.

8 THE COURT: You were. I am not super familiar
9 where that is, but could you see the Capitol from your home?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not from my home but if you
11 walked up the block to Capitol South Metro, or just in that 12 general area you can see it, yeah.

13 THE COURT: Did you do that that day?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I did not.

15 THE COURT: You just stayed inside?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I did.

17 THE COURT: Were you aware the events were going 18 on?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was.

20 THE COURT: You were watching them on TV?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Were you scared?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was afraid.

24 THE COURT: Did you know anyone that was at the 25 Capitol?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I did not.

2 THE COURT: You also mentioned that you followed
3 the news about the January 6th events at the Capitol.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-huh.

5 THE COURT: Is that in a general kind of way or 6 have you tracked specific cases or stayed on top --

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: A general kind of way.

8 THE COURT: Just headline news?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

10 THE COURT: Headline stories?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: How do you tend to get your news about
13 the Capitol events?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just through local news, news
15 sources, cable news, kind of a mixed bag of it all.

16 THE COURT: All right. Have you seen or heard
17 anything about this particular case?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I have not.

19 THE COURT: Have you seen or heard anything about 20 any individual in particular that you recall?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

22 THE COURT: Given how close you were to the 23 Capitol, I have to wonder where whether you formed any 24 opinion about the guilt of the people who were involved in
25 the events at the Capitol.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um, I mean, it's an unsavory
2 thing. I'm not -- um -- I don't know how to answer this.
3 It's just that I didn't care for it. But in terms of 4 forming an opinion, I mean, I don't -- I guess that's my
5 opinion. It was not something I would do personally.

6 THE COURT: Right.

7 Well, I'm wondering as you sit here, are you able
8 to put the feelings aside, the opinions, perhaps strong
9 ones, aside, and decide this case fairly and impartially
10 based on the evidence that's presented here in the 11 courtroom?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, I'm confident I can do
13 that.

14 THE COURT: You're sure you can kind of wipe the 15 slate clean and look at this case anew?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Are you at all concerned as you sit 18 here in the courtroom listening to the evidence you will 19 reliving in your own head how you felt that day?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not necessarily. I mean, I
21 purposely stayed inside. I mean, I did all I could to not 22 see it or hear it, I think, personally. So --

23 THE COURT: Did that inconvenience you that day?
24 Were you supposed to go certain places?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 You also indicated that you -- you or family
3 members or close friends work in law enforcement; is that
4 right?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I have a brother who is 6 a police officer in Federal Way, Washington.

7 THE COURT: In where?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Federal Way, Washington.

9 THE COURT: The State of Washington?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: How long has he been a police officer?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Twenty-five years.

13 THE COURT: Do you think by virtue of your 14 relationship with your brother, you would be more inclined 15 to give greater weight to the testimony of police who will 16 testify and federal agents who might testify in this case?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know -- no. I don't
18 have a super-close relationship with him. So I don't talk
19 to him about -- I wouldn't talk to him about things like
20 this, I don't think.

21 THE COURT: Have you talked to him about the
22 events of January 6th?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 THE COURT: Could you judge the credibility of a
25 police officer, just like you would judge the credibility of

1 any other witness you might see testify?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-huh.

3 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Berkower?

4 MS. BERKOWER: Good afternoon.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hi.

6 MS. BERKOWER: Very briefly, you just said uh-huh
7 to that last question.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

9 MS. BERKOWER: Did you mean yes or no?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 MS. BERKOWER: You would judge the testimony of a
12 police officer the same as any other witness?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 MS. BERKOWER: Okay. Thank you.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sorry about that.

16 MS. BERKOWER: No problem. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Welch, any questions?

18 MR. WELCH: No thank you.

19 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir.

20 (Prospective juror steps down.)

21 THE COURT: All right. Get ready. There are a
22 lot of yeses on this one, including the mask. So I'm going 23 to put my mask on.

24 This juror had yes answers to 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 12,
25 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 22, 24 and 27. So I'm going

1 to start with --

2 MS. BERKOWER: Your Honor. Is that 0313?

3 THE COURT: 0313, yes.

4 MS. BERKOWER: Thank you.

5 THE COURT: I'm going to start with questions 22,
6 the hardship, and 27, the reason it's difficult for this
7 juror to serve in this case. And if there's a need to go
8 on, I will. If you all agree, give me the signal.

9 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, juror number 0313.
10 (Prospective juror steps up.)

11 THE COURT: Good afternoon, ma'am.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

13 THE COURT: All right. I'll ask you to keep your 14 voice up, that's a microphone in front of you, so the court
15 reporter can hear you.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Of course, ma'am.

17 THE COURT: I'm going to start with your yes
18 answer that serving as a juror would be an extreme hardship.
19 And I'll remind you, if at any point I'm asking questions
20 that you would like to respond to privately, based on some 21 sensitive information, let me know, and we can talk through 22 this headset.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

24 THE COURT: All right. Is that a question you can 25 answer?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

2 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm the primary caregiver for 4 my child. He's not in before care or after care. School
5 starts at around 8:45 and ends at 3:15.

6 THE COURT: Okay. I missed the first part of your
7 answer. You said you --

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am the primary caregiver for 9 my child.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm also the person who takes 12 him to all of the activities, as well as school for drop-off
13 and pick-up.

14 THE COURT: Are you a single mom?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am not.

16 THE COURT: Okay. And does your partner work?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, he does.

18 THE COURT: Do you also work?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I do.

20 THE COURT: Is there anyone else for a short 21 period of time that could help you all with those 22 arrangements?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Unfortunately, no.

24 THE COURT: You don't have any baby-sitters or 25 anyone else?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

2 THE COURT: All right.

3 What about -- what age is the child?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Five -- six.

5 THE COURT: Just one child?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just one.

7 THE COURT: All right. You also answered yes to,
8 There is some other reason that it makes it difficult for to 9 you sit fairly and impartially and attentatively as a juror.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct. I work on Capitol
11 Hill. I feel very strongly about what happened that day. I
12 had staff that work -- that live nearby as well --

13 THE COURT: You work at the Library of Congress?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do.

15 THE COURT: Were you working that day?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was but not on site. I did
17 have staff I asked to come in on that day and staff
18 sheltering in place in their houses.

19 THE COURT: They were sheltered in place where?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In their houses not very far
21 from the events of the day.

22 THE COURT: I see. On Capitol Hill.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

24 THE COURT: Have you talked to them about the
25 events of that day?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I had to. I am their manager.
2 I had to help them process, as well as the fact that they
3 were completely stressed and freaked out. The events of 4 that day carried on for multiple months afterwards. I had 5 to help them through that.

6 I was also the person that requested people come
7 in that day. Only for them to then get turned out into the 8 streets as things were happening, therefore stressing 9 everybody out because they were pretty much in danger at 10 that point.

11 THE COURT: So some of your staff, who you brought 12 in that day to the Library of Congress were --

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I --

14 THE COURT: Let me finish the question.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, sorry, ma'am.

16 THE COURT: That's all right.

17 Some of the staff that you ordered to come into 18 the Library of Congress that day were told to evacuate; is 19 that what you are saying?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

21 THE COURT: And they were on the street --

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

23 THE COURT: -- and scared?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Did any of them get hurt? Injured?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They did not.

2 THE COURT: Do you know anyone who was actually at
3 the Capitol that day?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. At the Capitol. Hold
5 on. The Capitol Complex, yes. Not at the Capitol.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Anyone who was inside the 7 Capitol grounds?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I ordered some -- well,
9 are you considering the Madison Building part of the 10 grounds?

11 THE COURT: Is the part where the Library of 12 Congress is technically part of the Capitol grounds?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, they are all connected.
14 They are connected underground.

15 THE COURT: Underground. Okay. I didn't know
16 that.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's completely fascinating.
18 It really is.

19 THE COURT: All right. Well, aside from the 20 underground connection, I guess what I am getting at is was 21 anyone inside of the Capitol building or right outside the 22 Capitol building where the rioters were?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do not know. I did not ask
24 any further questions.

25 THE COURT: All right.

1 Let me ask you about what you've heard about the
2 Capitol events since that day.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't even know where to 4 start on that question, ma'am.

5 THE COURT: Have you followed these events
6 closely?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have followed them very
8 closely, yes.

9 THE COURT: And is that just reading the headlines
10 each day or are you looking for information relating to 11 those --

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, looking for information.

13 MR. WELCH: Excuse me, Your Honor. I think the 14 parties have a question for the Court.

15 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Bear with us just a 16 moment.

17 (Bench conference.)

18 THE COURT: Can you hear me?

19 MS. BERKOWER: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Is there an agreement this person
21 should be stricken?

22 MR. WELCH: I believe so.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 (Bench conference concluded.)

25 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, ma'am. You are

1 excused.

2 (Prospective juror steps down.)

3 THE COURT: All right. This next juror is 0443.

4 He has answered yes to 3, 4, 5, 6, 12, 22 and 27. Again, I
5 will start with 22 and 27.

6 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, juror number 0443.

7 (Prospective juror steps up.)

8 THE COURT: Good afternoon, sir.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: How are you doing, ma'am?

10 THE COURT: You may have a seat.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: How are you doing, Judge?

12 THE COURT: Good to have you here. If you feel 13 comfortable taking off your mask, feel free to do so.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

15 THE COURT: All right. So looking at your card, I
16 see that you answered yes to the question, whether serving a
17 (sic) juror would be an extreme hardship. And before you
18 answer that, let me remind you, if you would like to give me
19 your answer privately with the Court staff and the parties,
20 we can do that, if it's something sensitive you would rather 21 not talk about in public.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would like to talk about it
23 out in public.

24 THE COURT: You are okay?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

1 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think I am speaking from my
3 heart. I think that the incident that happened on January
4 the 6th, I think the -- I think everybody that went in there
5 was already guilty for going to the Capitol. That's my
6 opinion. That's straight from my heart. I think everyone
7 should be prosecuted to the max.

8 THE COURT: It sounds like you have a really
9 strong opinion about this. It would be hard to set aside --

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

11 THE COURT: -- and come and sit as a fair and 12 impartial juror in this case?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

14 THE COURT: It sounds like that you would be 15 leaning in favor of convicting the defendant, regardless of 16 the evidence.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

18 THE COURT: All right. Is there a motion?

19 MR. WELCH: There is.

20 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir.

21 (Prospective juror steps down.)

22 THE COURT: Okay. The next juror is 0045, has 23 answered yes to 3, 4, 5, 6 -- I think 17 -- 18, 22 and 24.
24 So 24 is the mask.

25 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, juror number 0045.

1 (Prospective juror steps up.)

2 THE COURT: Good afternoon, ma'am.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

4 THE COURT: If I can ask you to keep your voice
5 up, that's a microphone right there in front of you.

6 I want to ask you first about your yes answer to 7 the question about whether serving as a juror would present
8 an extreme hardship for you. You indicated that it would.
9 And let me remind you, if you would like to tell me why that
10 is, if it raises sensitive issues that you want to tell me
11 about on the phone with the husher on, we can do that. Are 12 you comfortable answering that question in public?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Keep your voice up so the court
15 reporter can hear you, and explain why serving as a juror in 16 this case would present an extreme hardship.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I didn't think I answered
18 that. What number was that?

19 THE COURT: That was, I think, 22. Am I off here?
20 Let me check the number.

21 Yes. So I had asked you -- I had explained that 22 we expect the presentation of evidence in this case to 23 include -- conclude early next week. And after the close of 24 evidence, the jury will deliberate until it reaches its 25 decision. Would serving as a juror in this case be an

1 extreme hardship to you? You answered yes to that, but did
2 you mean to answer yes to another one you think?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It probably was another
4 question.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Let me ask you the next
6 question. And, again, same point here, that if you'd prefer
7 to answer through the headset, we can do it that way.

8 The next question is 23. It relates to whether 9 you have health or physical problems that would make it
10 difficult to serve. Not that one?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: [SHAKES HEAD]

12 THE COURT: All right. The question before 22
13 was, Have you had an experience as a juror that would affect 14 your ability to be fair and impartial in this trial?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

16 THE COURT: Not that one?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

18 MR. WELCH: So you did answer yes about keeping 19 the mask on.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: All right. I also asked a catch-all
22 question, which was, Is there any other reason I have not
23 asked you that might make it difficult for you to sit fairly 24 and impartially and attentively as a juror? Could that have 25 been the question?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think so.

2 THE COURT: What about the person outside handing
3 out pamphlets. Did you mean to answer yes to that?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

5 THE COURT: All right. I am going to go through
6 the other numbers I've written down, and if something else
7 comes to mind, I want you to let me know.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

9 THE COURT: So starting at the top, you've stated
10 that you heard news about the January 6th events. You've 11 also said that you've heard or seen news about either the 12 defendant in this case or other individuals who were at the 13 Capitol on January 6th. Can you tell us a little bit more 14 about that?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I watched the news. I saw the 16 feed when the incident first happened, with the commotion
17 and everything going on at the Capitol building, how they
18 went in, destroyed the building. They were just fighting
19 off the police and everything, you know, just terrorizing.

20 THE COURT: Have you seen anything on the news or 21 read anything, heard anything about Mr. Reffitt, the 22 defendant in this case?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think so.

24 THE COURT: Do you recognize him? He's seated
25 over there at the table with the mask down?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm not sure.

2 THE COURT: You don't necessarily recognize him?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

4 THE COURT: All right. Have you formed any
5 opinion about the guilt of the people who were involved in
6 the events of the Capitol on January 6th?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, by watching the news,
8 yes, I have formed an --

9 THE COURT: Can you keep your voice up? It's hard
10 to hear you.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I said, Yes, I have formed an 12 opinion.

13 THE COURT: All right. And I take it from what 14 you've said so far, this is a negative opinion?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: And is it fair to say that you think
17 the people who were there on January 6th are guilty; is that 18 what you are saying or something short of that?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Sorry?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: All right. And you understand that 23 Mr. Reffitt, as he sits here, he's presumed innocent under 24 the law. Is that an instruction you can follow or do you
25 have such a strong view about the events of that day that

1 you would be unable to follow my instruction?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I will be unable to follow
3 your instructions.

4 THE COURT: And you understand under our criminal
5 justice system that a defendant cannot be convicted unless 6 and until the government proves the defendant's guilt beyond
7 a reasonable doubt. Would it be hard for you to follow that 8 instruction?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: All right. Is there a motion?

11 MR. WELCH: There is.

12 THE COURT: Any objection on striking?

13 MS. BERKOWER: No, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, ma'am.

15 (Prospective juror steps down.)

16 THE COURT: All right. The next juror is 0671,
17 has answered yes to 3, 4 and 17.

18 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, juror number 0671.

19 (Prospective juror steps up.)

20 THE COURT: Good afternoon, ma'am.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

22 THE COURT: All right. I see that you answered
23 yes to the question that you follow the news about the 24 January 6th events at the Capitol; is that right?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: And you've heard or seen news about
2 either Mr. Reffitt, the defendant in this case, or other
3 individuals who were charged in connection with the January
4 6th events; is that right?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was the article in this
6 morning's Post, yes.

7 THE COURT: About Mr. Reffitt?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, about the trial.

9 THE COURT: Have you read other articles or seen
10 news clips that relate to Mr. Reffitt other than the article
11 today?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

13 THE COURT: How about other individuals? Have you
14 followed any other January 6th defendants closely?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not a particular defendant,
16 just the event in general.

17 THE COURT: And when you say you follow the event
18 in general, are you talking about just staying up to date
19 with headlines in the newspapers and on TV or are you
20 looking for articles about the January 6th events?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I just receive the paper
22 every day so you can't miss it.

23 THE COURT: All right. Have you formed an opinion
24 about the guilt of people who were involved in the January
25 6th events?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, not particularly.

2 THE COURT: Despite what you've read, despite what
3 you seen on TV, would you be able to put all of that aside
4 and come in and decide whether Mr. Reffitt is innocent or 5 guilty, based on the evidence presented in this case?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'd have to look at the facts
7 for the individual and not for the group in total.

8 THE COURT: So you think you could put aside what 9 you've seen and read already and just focus on what's 10 presented in this courtroom?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, because I know nothing
12 about him.

13 THE COURT: All right. And you understand that as 14 he sits here, he is presumed innocent under the law?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's true.

16 THE COURT: And you understand that?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: And you understand that he could not 19 be convicted of any of the charges unless and until the 20 government proved him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: And you wouldn't have any trouble
23 following that instruction?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

25 THE COURT: All right. You also stated that you

1 have some strong views on firearms?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: And does that -- given your strong
4 views about firearms, does it make you feel like you would
5 favor one side or the other in this case? There are, as I
6 said earlier this morning, allegations of firearms in this 7 case. Would that create a problem for you serving on the 8 jury?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I personally am not in 10 favor of guns but, you know, that's -- I don't think a gun
11 in Texas is exactly the issue that we are here for today so
12 until you see the facts of gun ownership is just ubiquitous 13 in this country.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 Well, you understand that the indictment charging
16 Mr. Reffitt with possessing firearms is not evidence in this
17 case.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

19 THE COURT: You understand that?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

21 THE COURT: So would you weigh the evidence in 22 deciding whether to convict him of gun charges and follow
23 the instructions that I give you?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I mean, I understand.

25 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Berkower?

1 MS. BERKOWER: Good afternoon.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

3 MS. BERKOWER: May I ask, do you currently work?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I do.

5 MS. BERKOWER: What is your profession or 6 occupation?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm an administrative
8 assistant for a non-profit.

9 MS. BERKOWER: Can you say which non-profit that 10 is?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure. Order of the Eastern
12 Star.

13 MS. BERKOWER: Thank you.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Welch, any questions?

15 MR. WELCH: No, thank you.

16 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, ma'am.

17 Oh, one other thing before you go. I just want to 18 make sure. I assume that you saw on the jury questionnaire
19 that you don't have to serve because of your age. We are 20 delighted you are here. I just want to make sure that you
21 know that you have the option not to serve.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I know.

23 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you for being 24 here.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Next time --

1 (Prospective juror steps down.)

2 THE COURT: All right. The next juror didn't
3 answer yes to any questions.

4 COURTROOM DEPUTY: What number is that, Your
5 Honor?

6 THE COURT: 1566.

7 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Juror number 1566.

8 (Prospective juror steps up.)

9 THE COURT: One closer. This way. Right in front
10 of the microphone. There you go. Right there. And if you
11 are comfortable taking off your mask, please do.

12 Good afternoon.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

14 THE COURT: All right. So you haven't answered
15 yes to any of my questions.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. None of the questions
17 pertained to me, no.

18 THE COURT: Really? So you have not heard any 19 news about the January 6th events at the Capitol?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I did hear about it, but I
21 didn't -- I wasn't involved with it.

22 THE COURT: You weren't tracking it closely?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, ma'am.

24 THE COURT: You were aware of the events that
25 happened on January 6th, 2021?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: All right. And you did see news about
3 it on TV or in the newspaper?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Only on TV in passing. I
5 didn't get any names involved in the cases or anything like
6 that.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 Did you pay attention to that news close to 9 January 6th or have you followed it since then?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I haven't because the media
11 sensationalizes things. So I don't know what was true or 12 untrue. So I didn't take --

13 THE COURT: You haven't been following the news
14 reporting about those events closely?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. No, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right.

17 I reviewed a number of instructions in the other 18 room this morning, instructions about things like the 19 presumption of innocence, that defendants are presumed 20 innocent under the law.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. Yes.

22 THE COURT: Would you have any problem following
23 that instruction or any of the other instructions I
24 mentioned?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do not.

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do not have any problem with
3 it.

4 THE COURT: And you don't live near the Capitol or
5 you don't work near the Capitol?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, ma'am.

7 THE COURT: Would you think you could come into
8 this courtroom and be neutral for both sides? Not 9 predisposed towards the government or the defense in this
10 case?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can be neutral.

12 THE COURT: You could decide this case based on 13 the evidence you hear in the courtroom and the instructions
14 I provide?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Berkower?

17 MS. BERKOWER: Good afternoon.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

19 MS. BERKOWER: You said a moment ago you think the 20 media has sensationalized things, and you didn't know what 21 was true and not true. What do you mean by, "the media has 22 sensationalized things"?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They can make things larger 24 than they actually are.

25 MS. BERKOWER: And are there particular sources

1 you feel have sensationalized things? News sources?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. No particular case. It's
3 just that I feel that they do this to get views and, you
4 know, that type of thing.

5 MS. BERKOWER: And are there particular TV or 6 radio or podcast or online sites that you feel have 7 particularly sensationalized things here?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, just the news in general.

9 MS. BERKOWER: What channel news do you watch?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Channel 7, occasionally, to 11 look at the weather. Really that's it. In passing in the 12 morning I have the TV on.

13 MS. BERKOWER: Anything online as well for news?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

15 MS. BERKOWER: Okay. All right. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Welch?

17 MR. WELCH: No questions. Thank you.

18 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, ma'am.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

20 (Prospective juror steps down.)

21 THE COURT: All right. The next juror is 1670.

22 And this juror has marked yes to the mask question and to 23 the -- question 24 and 27.

24 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, are you ready?

25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Juror number 1675.

2 (Prospective juror steps up.)

3 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

5 THE COURT: If I can ask you to keep your voice up
6 and speak into that microphone that's right in front of you,
7 that would be helpful.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

9 THE COURT: All right. I see that you've answered
10 yes to the question that there is some other reason that 11 makes it difficult for you to sit fairly and impartially and 12 attentively as a juror.

13 And before you answer why you said yes to that,
14 let me remind you that if you'd like to give your answer to 15 this question on the headset with the husher on because it
16 would reveal private information, you may do so. Are you
17 comfortable explaining why you answered yes to that in 18 public?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, can you repeat that
20 question?

21 THE COURT: So the question said -- the question
22 you answered yes to or just what I asked you now?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The one you said I answered
24 yes to.

25 THE COURT: The one I asked you this morning?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Let me actually read the
3 question. I don't want to -- all right.

4 So what I said this morning was, "My final
5 question is what I call my catch-all question. This asks
6 whether there is any other reason that I've not asked about
7 that might make it difficult for you to sit fairly,
8 impartially and attentively as a juror. Perhaps you have a
9 religious, moral or philosophical reason or strong personal
10 or political beliefs that you believe would make it hard for 11 you to be a fair and impartial juror. In sum, is there some 12 reason that I have not already mentioned that would make it
13 difficult for you to sit as a fair and impartial juror in 14 this case?"

15 Did you mean to say, yes, to that question?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

17 THE COURT: You did not. Okay.

18 Let me ask you some of the questions surrounding 19 that. I know you were uncomfortable with me and the 20 attorneys taking the mask off. Right?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Let me see what -- so there was 23 -- the question right before that question I just asked you
24 was, I said that I understood someone outside was passing
25 out a pamphlet and did you read the pamphlet? Did you read

1 that?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not all the way. I didn't
3 read the whole thing.

4 THE COURT: Sorry. I can't hear you.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I didn't read the whole thing.

6 THE COURT: You read part of it, though?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: All right. Is that why you think you
9 answered yes, because of the pamphlet question?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Why I answered yes to --

11 THE COURT: To that question I just asked you
12 because you read part of it?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Regarding the face mask?

14 THE COURT: No, no, the pamphlet. The pamphlet.
15 I'm sorry. I am being really confusing here.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: At first you were saying the 17 other question.

18 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I am jumbling it all up.
19 Here is my question: Did someone hand you a
20 pamphlet out there?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: A paper, yes.

22 THE COURT: You read part of it?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: A little bit, yes.

24 THE COURT: What did you read on the pamphlet? Do
25 you remember?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was kind of -- no, not all
2 of it, no.

3 THE COURT: Do you remember any of it? I know
4 there was a lot of tiny print. You don't have to get it out
5 right now.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: This paper right here?

7 THE COURT: Yeah. No, I don't want you to read
8 it. I don't want you to read it. But I'm curious if you
9 remember what you read.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, not quite.

11 THE COURT: Not quite. All right.

12 Well, let me say this: You understand that if you
13 are selected as a juror in this case, that you will need to 14 decide this case based only on the evidence that's presented 15 in the courtroom and the instructions I give you. Do you
16 understand that?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: And I will give you a number of 19 instructions in this trial, if you are selected as a juror.
20 I mentioned a few of them earlier this morning. For 21 example, I explained that the defendant in a criminal case,
22 like Mr. Reffitt here, the defendant is presumed to be 23 innocent under the law. Do you understand that?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

25 THE COURT: As he sits here now, he is innocent

1 unless and until he is proven guilty beyond a reasonable
2 doubt. Do you understand that?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: And would you have any trouble
5 following that instruction if you were picked to serve as a
6 juror in this case?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

8 THE COURT: Is there any reason why you think you
9 might not be able to be fair and impartial to both sides in 10 this case? Both the defense and the government.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't --

12 THE COURT: Do you think you could be fair and 13 neutral?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Fair, yes.

15 THE COURT: To both sides.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. I can be fair, yes.

17 THE COURT: You do. Okay.

18 You did not answer yes to the question, "You've 19 heard news about the January 6th Capitol events." Do you
20 know about what happened on January 6th, 2021?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: When everybody was climbing
22 over the walls.

23 THE COURT: At the Capitol? You heard about that 24 event?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I heard a little bit. I

1 didn't want to put exactly yes. I didn't hear everything
2 but I heard a little.

3 THE COURT: A little bit. On the news?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: You weren't anywhere near the Capitol
6 that day?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

8 THE COURT: Do you live or work near the Capitol?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I work for PG County
10 Public Schools and I work for Costco.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 Based on the that little that you saw on the news,
13 have you formed any opinion about what happened that day?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I thought it was crazy, the 15 fact that, you know, you see --

16 THE COURT: Can you keep your voice up a little
17 bit. It's hard to hear you through the mask.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a little nervous too.
19 It's my first time.

20 THE COURT: I understand.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I thought it was actually
22 crazy for what I saw, because I never seen it before.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I didn't think it was 25 appropriate.

1 THE COURT: Do you think it would be possible for
2 you to put your feelings about what happened that day aside
3 and come to this courtroom with a clear mind and decide
4 Mr. Reffitt's guilt or innocence based only on what you hear
5 in the courtroom?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I mean, I'm not going to lie,
7 yeah, but at the same time I would be nervous a little bit
8 too.

9 THE COURT: No. I definitely don't want you to 10 lie. You are under oath now. Right? I appreciate you
11 trying to be as honest as you can.

12 When you say, "I don't want to lie," are you
13 saying it would be a little bit difficult to put everything
14 out of your mind? Is that what you mean when you say, "It
15 would be a little bit difficult"?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm saying -- how do I explain
17 it? Of course, I'm going to tell the truth, but at the same
18 time while you are telling the truth, you just don't know
19 what the next person is capable of or what could happen to 20 cause -- of the answer that you give. Do you understand
21 what I am saying?

22 THE COURT: Are you nervous about serving as a
23 juror just because you've never done it before?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I never done it before.

25 THE COURT: Does that make you nervous?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, a little bit.

2 THE COURT: Are you nervous about that? Are you
3 nervous about whether you can be fair?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm nervous about both.

5 THE COURT: You're nervous about whether you can
6 be fair as well as whether you can serve as a juror?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: And is that because you have such
9 strong views about what happened on January 6th?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: And knowing what you know about what 12 happened that day, do you come into the courtroom leaning
13 towards the prosecution in this case because you think it
14 was wrong?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Do I come into the courtroom
16 leaning?

17 THE COURT: Do you come to court favoring the 18 government or the prosecution over the defense because of 19 the views that you have about January 6th or do you come to 20 Court open to hearing both sides and judging this case
21 fairly and impartially?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would judge it fairly.

23 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Ms. Berkower?

24 MS. BERKOWER: Good afternoon.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

1 MS. BERKOWER: Just a few follow-up questions
2 about that paper that you got handed outside the courthouse.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 MS. BERKOWER: So did you talk to the person who
5 handed it to you?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

7 MS. BERKOWER: So they just gave it to you and you
8 took it?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, pretty much.

10 MS. BERKOWER: And why did you take it?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She said, Take this paper.
12 This is what --

13 THE COURT: Sir, can you keep your voice up? I'm 14 having a hard time hearing you.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Basically gave me the paper
16 and telling me this is what I need to read -- I didn't read
17 the whole thing, that's what I was saying. Basically
18 telling me this is the paper you need to have and you need
19 to read. I followed by that.

20 MS. BERKOWER: I'm sorry. I will put my mask back
21 on. I'm sorry about that.

22 Okay. He said, This is what you need. Was it a
23 man or a woman? Did you say he? The person who handed it
24 to you.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. Yes.

1 MS. BERKOWER: He said, This is what you need to
2 know to be a juror; is that what he said? Is that what I
3 heard you say?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Is this -- is this the paper
5 you are talking about right here? Can I take it out?

6 MS. BERKOWER: I think before you said you got 7 handed a piece of paper outside the building before you came 8 in.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Can I take it out?

10 MS. BERKOWER: Sure.

11 THE COURT: Sir, you can take it out and show it
12 to us.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Is this the paper? United 14 States District Court for the District of Columbia.

15 THE COURT: No.

16 MS. BERKOWER: I think we thought you were talking
17 about a different paper.

18 THE COURT: Sorry, sir. There was a different
19 piece of paper that we thought that you had received. That 20 was a piece of paper given to you by the court?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Okay. All right. You can read that 23 paper. Sorry about that.

24 MS. BERKOWER: Okay. In that case, I'm sorry for 25 the confusion, and I have no further questions. Thank you.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's why I was kind of --
2 I'm sorry. I was confused. I am nervous.

3 THE COURT: I understand. We just heard that
4 someone was handing pamphlets out. And that's what I
5 thought you were referring to. I should have asked to see
6 it earlier.

7 Let me ask you before I give Mr. Welch a chance to 8 ask you questions, Do you recognize Mr. Reffitt in the 9 courtroom? Have you seen him on TV or the newspaper? The 10 defendant, do you see him with the mask down over there?
11 Have you seen him on TV or anything?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't recall seeing
13 Mr. Reffitt.

14 THE COURT: All right. Well, let me just ask you,
15 No matter what you've seen, what you've heard about what 16 happened at the Capitol on January 6, and no matter what 17 opinions you have, can you put all of that aside and decide
18 this case based only on the evidence that you hear in the 19 courtroom and the instructions I give you?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Welch?

22 MR. WELCH: No questions. Thank you.

23 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. Sorry for the 25 difficulties.

1 THE COURT: No. No.

2 (Prospective juror steps down.)

3 THE COURT: All right. The next juror is 0 --
4 that was 1670. Right?

5 COURTROOM DEPUTY: That's correct, Judge.

6 THE COURT: So 35 -- 0355, yes to 1, 3 and 4.

7 COURTROOM DEPUTY: 0355.

8 (Prospective juror steps up.)

9 THE COURT: Good afternoon, ma'am. If you are 10 comfortable taking off your mask, you may.

11 All right. You've answered yes to the question
12 that you live or work at or near the U.S. Capitol; is that 13 right?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: And which is it?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Third and E, Southwest, where 17 I work.

18 THE COURT: Where do you work?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: NASA headquarters.

20 THE COURT: All right. Can you see the Capitol
21 from where you work?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not in my office. Maybe
23 certain floors and certain windows, but I haven't spent much
24 time there.

25 THE COURT: It's pretty close to the Capitol?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. We are near the Ford
2 House of Representatives building.

3 THE COURT: Were you working on January 6th?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was teleworking.

5 THE COURT: From home?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 Did you know anyone who was -- were the people in 9 your office that day working?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: There were some people. Most 11 people had been working remotely since the pandemic.

12 THE COURT: Did you talk to them about the events
13 of January 6th?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think that I have 15 spoken to anyone who was actually in the building.

16 THE COURT: What about anyone who was in actual
17 Congress that day?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

19 THE COURT: You mentioned that you have followed
20 the news about the January 6th events at the Capitol. Do
21 you track the stories about it or do you just read the 22 headlines as they come up when you read the news generally?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't actively track it. I
24 see the headlines come up. If it's a story that seems 25 interesting, I click on it. But more passively than

1 anything, I would say.

2 THE COURT: This tends to be online?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sometimes online. Sometimes
4 on television news. Sometimes on NPR, radio stations.

5 THE COURT: All right. Have you heard or read or 6 seen anything about Mr. Reffitt, the defendant, in this
7 case?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not that I'm aware of.

9 THE COURT: What about other individuals, specific 10 individuals, who have been charged in connection with the 11 January 6th events?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't recall names but I
13 have seen stories about individuals.

14 THE COURT: Can you tell us in general what those 15 stories have related to?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: There's some of the more, I
17 guess, photographed ones that have been on the news that 18 would -- specific individuals that there have been 19 continuing coverage of. I think that there was one recently
20 but I don't recall the details of that particular story or
21 case.

22 THE COURT: Based on what you've seen and heard,
23 have you formed any opinions about the guilt of those who 24 were involved in the January 6 events?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not holistically or

1 deliberately, I guess, or systematically.

2 THE COURT: All right. If not holistically or 3 systematically, have you individually formed any opinions on 4 individuals' guilt or innocence?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would say that I haven't,
6 you know, thoroughly looked at all of the details for each
7 case to have a solid opinion one way or the other.

8 THE COURT: Do you have such strong feelings about 9 the events of that day that you could not come into this 10 courtroom and be fair and impartial if you were selected as 11 a juror in this case?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'd like to believe that I can 13 be fair and impartial.

14 THE COURT: You think you would come in as a
15 neutral juror, open to hearing the evidence that's presented
16 here in the courtroom and putting aside anything you may 17 have seen or heard before and judging this case solely based 18 on what happens in this courtroom and the instructions I
19 give you?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I would like to think so.

21 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Berkower?

22 MS. BERKOWER: Nothing from the government, Your
23 Honor.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Welch?

25 MR. WELCH: No questions. Thank you.

1 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, ma'am.

2 (Prospective juror steps down.)

3 THE COURT: All right. The next juror 1747, yes
4 answers to 3, 4, 5, 6, 17, 18, 22, 27.

5 I'll start with 22.

6 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, juror number 1747.

7 (Prospective juror steps up.)

8 THE COURT: Good afternoon, ma'am. How are you?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Fine.

10 THE COURT: Good. I wanted to ask you about your 11 yes answer to question 22, which indicated that serving as a
12 juror would present an extreme hardship to you. Are you
13 comfortable answering that question publicly or would you
14 prefer to do it on the headset?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can do it publicly.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm the primary -- the 18 designated person with my niece. Because her schedule is 19 kind of flexible, I am the primary contact to pick up her
20 daughter from daycare -- from school. So she has no one
21 else to pick her up.

22 My schedule is kind of flexible, where her
23 schedule is not flexible. She would have to take off work
24 and everything, which would, you know, be a hardship on her.
25 So my schedule is kind of flexible. I can take leave and

1 stuff because I work for the government so that would kind
2 of help her with her schedule and not taking off and
3 everything like that for financial hardship for her on her
4 side.

5 THE COURT: And how old is her daughter?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Six. And they get out of 7 school at 2.

8 THE COURT: All right. Is there an after-school
9 program that the daughter could attend?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, up to 5 p.m. but she 11 don't get off work until 7 or 8:00.

12 THE COURT: And where is her niece in school?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My niece's school is in 14 Maryland. She is in Avalon Elementary School in Fort
15 Washington, Maryland.

16 THE COURT: All right. And there is no other
17 family member or friend who might be able to make 18 arrangements to pick her up, for a short period of time, if 19 you were asked to serve on this jury?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Everybody works 12-hour
21 shifts. Her father, which is my brother -- both
22 grandparents are in law enforcement. They have 12-hour
23 shifts. Even her ex-husband, he has a 12-hour shift. And 24 he is in the law enforcement. So everybody's shift is kind
25 of --

1 THE COURT: And the 12-hour shifts are always
2 during the day rather than the night?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. or 6
4 a.m. to 6 p.m.

5 THE COURT: But there is after-care until 5?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, let me run
8 through some of these other questions as well that I have 9 for you.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

11 THE COURT: You mentioned that you have followed
12 the news about the January 6th events.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 THE COURT: And you've seen news either about the 15 defendant, Mr. Reffitt, or about other individuals who were 16 at the Capitol on January 6th. Can you tell us in kind of a
17 general way what you've seen or heard on the news?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, basically just seeing
19 the videos, the commentaries that I've seen on the news
20 about who was involved in the insurgence, and the text, and 21 who was involved and what happened. Certain individual who 22 was at the case -- who had came on television that I see on 23 different networks.

24 THE COURT: Is this around the time of the January
25 6th events or have you continued to follow it since then?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Off and on this year. But
2 last year, yes. When it happened, yes, I was following it
3 rigorously, to see what was going on.

4 THE COURT: Did you follow it closely? Did you
5 track individual cases?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

7 THE COURT: And have you followed it closely since
8 then?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

10 THE COURT: Based on what you've seen or heard,
11 have you formed any opinion about the guilt of those who 12 were involved in the January 6th events at the Capitol?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 THE COURT: And what about Mr. Reffitt in 15 particular?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Based on what I saw on news
17 and stuff, you know, I don't feel like I have a biased
18 opinion. I just feel that he would be, in my opinion,
19 guilty, based on what happened at the Capitol.

20 THE COURT: And that's Mr. Reffitt in particular?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, anyone who was involved at 22 the insurgence on January 6th.

23 THE COURT: So you heard me earlier this morning
24 when I said that a defendant comes to court presumed 25 innocent by law; that's an instruction you would hear.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

2 THE COURT: And that a defendant can't be
3 convicted unless and until the government proves its case
4 beyond a reasonable doubt. Would you have a hard time
5 following my instructions?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Listening, I think I probably
7 would because -- I mean, I understand your question, but I
8 just feel that on that day I don't think I could.

9 THE COURT: So you think you'd come into this case
10 kind of favoring the government's side?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 MR. WELCH: Your Honor, I have a question for the 13 Court.

14 THE COURT: All right. Anything from the 15 government?

16 MS. BERKOWER: Your Honor, I think we would like
17 to --

18 THE COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry. Please use the 19 microphone.

20 MS. BERKOWER: I think we would like to continue
21 questioning this prospective juror.

22 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

23 Our goal here, as I said this morning, is to try
24 to get a panel of jurors who are neutral.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

1 THE COURT: And who don't come into the courtroom
2 leaning one way or the other. And a lot of individuals have
3 feelings about what happened on January 6th and that's not
4 uncommon. But the question is whether you can put those
5 feelings, those opinions aside, and kind of wipe the slate
6 clean, and decide this case based on the evidence you hear
7 in this courtroom and the instructions I provide. Is that
8 something you think you could do?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

10 THE COURT: All right. You've also said you have 11 some views on firearms.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Are those views you could put aside in 14 deciding this case? This case does -- there are allegations
15 of firearms. There are allegations that Mr. Reffitt
16 possessed firearms. They are just allegations at this 17 point. An indictment is not evidence. Would that have any 18 impact on your ability to be fair and impartial to both
19 sides in this case?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: [No response]

21 THE COURT: You seem to be hesitating. What are 22 you thinking about?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm trying to think can I, you
24 know, based on my views on firearms I'm trying to think if I
25 can be fair. I don't think so.

1 THE COURT: All right. You look like you are
2 really struggling. And there is no wrong answer here. We
3 just want you to tell the truth.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

5 THE COURT: I know these are hard questions. I
6 appreciate your candor. So, again, just to make sure I'm
7 understanding, you don't think you could put your views
8 aside about firearms?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

10 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Berkower?

11 MS. BERKOWER: Good afternoon.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hello.

13 MS. BERKOWER: Ma'am, I just wanted to follow up
14 on a few questions that Judge Friedrich just asked you. The 15 first -- I want to make sure I understand your views on 16 setting aside your own personal opinions if you were picked
17 as a juror. Okay.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: [NODDED HEAD]

19 MS. BERKOWER: I understand it sounds like you
20 have opinions about the guilt of people involved in January
21 6th. Do I understand that correctly?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 MS. BERKOWER: And if the judge were to order you
24 that if you were picked as a juror you must set aside those 25 opinions, would you be able to follow her order?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't believe so, no.

2 MS. BERKOWER: And you said that you can be fair
3 -- you don't know if you can be fair given your views about
4 firearms. Could you explain what views you are concerned
5 about?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I just have a view that not
7 everyone should have a firearm. And I don't think there's a
8 need for certain military firearms or any type of firearm.
9 I just believe that firearm is not a right but a privilege.
10 So in that case -- there should be certain, you know -- a 11 firearm is too easily available for people to access and 12 everything in that manner.

13 MS. BERKOWER: If the Judge were to order you to 14 set those views aside, would you be able to follow that 15 order?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

17 MS. BERKOWER: Thank you, ma'am.

18 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, ma'am.

19 (Prospective juror steps down.)

20 THE COURT: Is there any motion?

21 MR. WELCH: I renew my motion.

22 THE COURT: All right. I will grant the motion.
23 The next juror, 0728 answered yes to 3, 4, 5, 7,
24 19, 20.

25 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, juror number 0728.

1 (Prospective juror steps up.)

2 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

4 THE COURT: If you are comfortable taking off your
5 mask --

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am.

7 THE COURT: -- would you, please?

8 All right. So I see that you've answered yes to 9 the questions about news relating to the January 6th Capitol
10 events. I take it you've seen news on TV, in the newspaper,
11 on the internet --

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's correct.

13 THE COURT: -- about these events.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: You've also seen or heard news either
16 about the defendant, Guy Reffitt, or other individuals
17 connected to January 6. Can you elaborate, please?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure. Other individuals, I
19 don't know them by first name. I just know them sort of by 20 the social media names they've given -- you know, the guy
21 with the horns or whatever, but I don't know their names.

22 I thought they all went through the system
23 already. So I don't know the individual people, but I do
24 know that they are being tried or taking deals. That's all
25 I know.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Have you followed these cases
2 on your own or do you just read the headlines and the news
3 stories that you see when you review news generally?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I read The Washington
5 Post pretty much every day. And I read the headline. I
6 don't really read the articles because you kind of have to 7 pick your poison as to how you want to start or end your day
8 so --

9 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I didn't catch that.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You -- I kind of have to 11 decide, Is this worth me going down the rabbit hole reading
12 this? Is this going to upset me? Is this going to ruin my 13 day? Is it interesting enough headline that I want to read
14 it? I don't always read it, but I do read the Post and so I
15 am probably more familiar with headlines than I am with 16 actual content.

17 THE COURT: Have you seen any articles about
18 Mr. Reffitt?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, his name doesn't even 20 sound familiar to me.

21 THE COURT: All right. Based on what you've seen
22 and heard, have you formed any opinions about the guilt or 23 innocence of those who are involved in the January 6th
24 events?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do have an opinion, and I do

1 find it irreprehensible what they've done.

2 THE COURT: All right. Given that strong opinion,
3 is that something you think you could put aside, if you were
4 chosen as a juror in this case, and decide this case fairly
5 and impartially based on the evidence as presented in the 6 courtroom?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'd like to think I can. My 8 job -- my 9-to-5 job is an internal auditor. I do internal 9 fraud investigations on associates for an insurance company.
10 So my job is to, no matter what I think about the 11 department, the individuals, my job is to go collect the 12 facts and then present them to management to decide what 13 they want to do with the associate. So it's part of my 14 everyday existence.

15 THE COURT: All right. But if you understand if 16 you serve as a juror in this case, your job is not to go
17 collect the facts.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's correct. What I am
19 trying to say is I can be objective in my research or taking 20 the information.

21 THE COURT: All right. So you will base any 22 decision, any verdict, based only on the evidence that you
23 would see and hear in the courtroom?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That is correct.

25 THE COURT: All right. And despite those strong

1 views, you don't feel like you are coming into this case
2 kind of favoring the government's side over the defense?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It would be untrue to say I
4 don't have a bias. I do.

5 THE COURT: All right. Do you understand that 6 Mr. Reffitt, as he sits here, is presumed under the law to 7 be innocent?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That is correct.

9 THE COURT: And do you understand that he cannot 10 be convicted unless and until the government proves its case
11 beyond a reasonable doubt?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That is correct.

13 THE COURT: And would you be able to put aside
14 everything you've seen and heard about the Capitol events in 15 deciding this case solely based on what you heard in the 16 courtroom?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I believe I can.

18 THE COURT: Oh, you say you no longer live in D.C.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a residence at 3003 Van
20 Ness Street. I lived there with my boyfriend until very 21 recently. My name is still on the lease. It's a recent 22 breakup. I am staying in Falls Church with my friend until 23 I can remove my name from the lease. But my intention is to 24 remain a D.C. resident. I actually finished completing 25 mortgage paperwork yesterday to purchase in D.C.

1 THE COURT: So -- I'm just confused.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm temporarily staying in
3 Falls Church. I didn't answer that questions because --

4 THE COURT: I see. All right. You haven't moved
5 outside of D.C.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. Absolutely not.

7 THE COURT: All right. You also say you, a family
8 member or close friend is a lawyer, student or works in a
9 legal office.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My ex-boyfriend who I resided 11 with is currently in law school.

12 THE COURT: All right. And did you talk about the 13 law with him?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really.

15 THE COURT: Do you talk about the law with anyone
16 else?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

18 THE COURT: You could follow my instructions just 19 by what you may have heard about the law?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: And what you've seen on TV?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 THE COURT: All right. This question, if you'd 24 like to answer privately on the headset, you can do that.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

1 THE COURT: The question you answered yes to is
2 that you or someone you know well has been arrested, charged
3 or convicted of a crime or been a victim or witness to a
4 crime. Is that something you'd like to answer privately?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

6 My father was shot when I was eight or nine years
7 old, in second grade. I was not present to it, but it was a
8 fundamental part of my life.

9 THE COURT: I'm very sorry to hear that. Was 10 someone prosecuted for that offense?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do not believe so.

12 THE COURT: Did your father survive?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He did.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 Were the police -- I take it the police were 16 contacted?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Was there anything about the way that 19 investigation was handled or what you saw in terms of how 20 the police behaved that might make you favor one side or the 21 other in this case?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I was really young. I
23 just know that an incident happened. And my parents didn't 24 discuss it with us in any great detail because it was 25 traumatic. So it happened. He survived. We moved on.

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 All right. Ms. Berkower?

3 MS. BERKOWER: Nothing from the government, Your
4 Honor.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Welch?

6 MR. WELCH: I have a couple, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. WELCH: Ma'am, does the way that your father
9 was injured cause you to have strong feelings about 10 firearms?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um, I would say, yes, I did
12 feel that way. I hate to bring him back up but my ex was a
13 hunter. So I went hunting to get over this fear of guns.
14 And it actually worked. I like rifle shooting so --

15 MR. WELCH: Very good. And I'm sorry to bring up
16 your ex again.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's fine.

18 MR. WELCH: How long have you been staying in 19 Falls Church?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So the breakup happened in 21 August, but a week later my father died. I went straight
22 from the breakup to Florida, Miami. I stayed there six to 23 eight weeks with my mom. Then I came back to D.C. and then
24 I moved myself to a friend's house. And then I went back to 25 Miami because I wasn't well. And then I came back at the

1 beginning of the year. So I have been in Falls Church,
2 really, at the beginning of the year.

3 MR. WELCH: Okay. You just indicated you just 4 signed a mortgage --

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, the mortgage people
6 started to roll.

7 MR. WELCH: I'm sorry. Thank you for correcting
8 me. When are you supposed to move back into D.C.?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The realtor and I have a
10 three-month window to get me back to D.C. So that is our 11 goal.

12 MR. WELCH: Okay. Thank you.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-huh.

14 MR. WELCH: Your Honor, I have a question for the 15 Court, an actual question.

16 THE COURT: Right. I know. Ms. Berkower, do you
17 have follow up?

18 MS. BERKOWER: No follow up, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay. All right. You may be excused.
20 (Prospective juror steps down.)

21 THE COURT: So I assume this has to do with her
22 residence or lack thereof.

23 MR. WELCH: Right. And that would be the 24 question. I haven't researched this. I don't know whether 25 under the set of facts that she has presented, whether she

1 is actually domiciled in D.C. since last August, when the
2 breakup happened --

3 THE COURT: Right.

4 MR. WELCH: With the thought she is going to close
5 in six months.

6 THE COURT: She said she is still on the lease but 7 she has been living in Falls Church since the start of the 8 year.

9 MR. WELCH: Yeah.

10 THE COURT: Does the government have a position on 11 this?

12 MS. BERKOWER: Yes, Your Honor.

13 Your Honor, the way I wrote it down is she still
14 considers herself -- her intention is to remain a D.C.
15 resident, so she still considers herself a D.C. resident,
16 but has been staying with a friend in Virginia.

17 THE COURT: But the hope is to buy a home in D.C.
18 It's not even definite at this point. The intention is to 19 return to D.C.

20 I don't know offhand the answer to this. I think
21 we need to look at this. Is there any need to call her back
22 for follow-up questions?

23 MR. WELCH: [SHAKES HEAD]

24 MS. BERKOWER: I guess we could call her back for 25 a few, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Juror number 0728.

3 THE COURT: Good afternoon, again.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hello.

5 THE COURT: I just wanted to follow up with a few
6 more questions about your current residence. So as I
7 understand it, you've been living in Falls Church, Virginia
8 since the start of the year; is that correct?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's correct.

10 THE COURT: Yet your name is on the lease --

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's correct.

12 THE COURT: -- in a D.C. apartment that you lived
13 with your boyfriend for how long?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It will be actually be -- it
15 was three years. We signed the lease, I believe -- it was 16 the end of February, the beginning of March, of 2019.

17 THE COURT: All right. But you moved out in 18 August of 2021. Correct?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would say I probably -- I
20 moved out -- I picked up my belongings in October of 2021.
21 But I did not have a home, for lack of a better word, until 22 January 'cause I was taking care of my mom in Miami,
23 Florida.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So I had thought you said
25 August but it was October when --

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, the breakup was August.
2 My dad died a week later, hence the travel back and forth to
3 Miami, Florida.

4 THE COURT: And then you moved your stuff out in 5 October.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. And the trip in between
7 me going back to Florida, I packed up all of my stuff and I
8 put it in somebody's garage.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I continued to travel back
11 home to take care of my family.

12 THE COURT: And you stayed on a couple of 13 occasions between then and the start of the year with 14 friends in D.C.?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's correct.

16 THE COURT: And your intention right now is to try
17 to buy a place in D.C.?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That is correct.

19 THE COURT: But you don't have any contract on any 20 place?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. No. I just got 22 pre-qualified. This whole idea March 1st was sort of 23 get-your-life together and of course, I am here.

24 THE COURT: But you've been consistently living in 25 Falls Church, Virginia since January of this year?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would say that's a fair
2 assessment, yes.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Okay. Ms. Berkower?

4 MS. BERKOWER: Good afternoon.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

6 MS. BERKOWER: Just a few more questions about
7 this. Do you have a car?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do.

9 MS. BERKOWER: Is it registered in Virginia or 10 D.C.?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Everything is still registered
12 in D.C.

13 MS. BERKOWER: What about your residence with your 14 employer? Did you update that at all?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, because I didn't know
16 where I was going to stay.

17 MS. BERKOWER: When does that lease that your name
18 is on, when does that expire?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It should be expiring at the 20 end of this month. Originally I was going to sign an 21 agreement that said "roommate removal." But because I got 22 this, I just put a hold on it to see what the courts wanted
23 to do.

24 MS. BERKOWER: Did you receive a jury summons
25 through the mail?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I did.

2 MS. BERKOWER: So where are you receiving your
3 mail now?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: At 3003 Van Ness --

5 MS. BERKOWER: You still receive your mail at the 6 apartment?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. Yes.

8 MS. BERKOWER: Okay. You said that you left some 9 of your belongings with a friend?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-huh.

11 MS. BERKOWER: Is that friend in the district or 12 outside?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, it's Falls Church. She 14 has a garage.

15 MS. BERKOWER: Okay. So you moved your belongings
16 there.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-huh.

18 MS. BERKOWER: Do you consider yourself a D.C.
19 resident still?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do.

21 THE COURT: You say the lease expires the end of 22 this month? Is that today?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. Yes. So when it
24 expires, you go month to month. So every month we can stay
25 in there, as long as we don't sign a lease. I was going to

1 remove my name off this lease for the same questions you are
2 asking me about, but I put a hold on it when I got the jury
3 summons because I wanted the courts to decide whatever you
4 wanted me to do. I didn't want to interrupt this process.

5 THE COURT: All right. But after today, will your
6 name be off the lease?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, because I told them to put
8 a stop until I was done with this.

9 THE COURT: All right. Any other questions?
10 Mr. Welch?

11 MR. WELCH: I don't have any additional questions.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MR. WELCH: I do for the Court but not this
14 person.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, ma'am. I appreciate
16 your additional time.

17 (Prospective juror steps down.)

18 THE COURT: All right. So this is something that 19 I want to look at. You all may think you know the answer.
20 I just don't, as I sit here now. Ms. Berkower, is there
21 something you want to say?

22 MS. BERKOWER: Only a request to put a pin in this 23 question, and we can take it up at a later time, since we 24 still have other jurors --

25 THE COURT: Yes, I would like to keep moving. I

1 will ask you all to take a look at this this evening, and I
2 will as well, and we will address it first thing tomorrow.

3 All right. The next juror is juror number 0432.
4 She's --

5 (Knocking on door.)

6 Just one moment.

7 -- she answered yes to 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 15, 17, 26
8 and 27.

9 MR. WELCH: Your Honor, could you repeat those 10 numbers?

11 THE COURT: Yes, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 15, 17, 26 -- I
12 think that's the pamphlet question -- and 27.

13 MR. WELCH: Thank you.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Juror number 0432.

16 THE COURT: Good afternoon, sir.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hello.

18 THE COURT: If you are comfortable taking off your
19 mask, please do. And thank you for your patience.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

21 THE COURT: All right. So I see that you've 22 answered yes to having either you or someone you know having
23 a direct or indirect connection to the events at the Capitol
24 on January 6th, 2021. Can you explain what that is?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. A couple different. I

1 have several friends that worked at the Capitol in
2 Congressional offices.

3 THE COURT: On January 6th?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yep.

5 And also through an associate, was aware of 6 somebody who was involved in organizing the rally. So
7 there's a connection there as well.

8 THE COURT: This is the Stop the Steal rally?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

10 THE COURT: All right. Have you discussed the 11 events of January 6th with those who were in the Capitol on 12 that day?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 THE COURT: And did you learn information from 15 them that is different in nature than what you hear (sic) in 16 the paper?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I just commiserated with 18 them about it.

19 THE COURT: All right. Simply because you know
20 someone who was in the Capitol at the time, does that make 21 you lean in favor of one side or the other in this case?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, in my profession I'm a
23 public relations consultant. I work with a lot of 24 journalists. I know a lot of the journalists that covered 25 the events. I have friends and associates that work in the

1 Capitol. The nature of my business is such that I read the
2 paper and I am aware of the news. I am very aware of this
3 case. I followed it.

4 THE COURT: This particular case?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yep.

6 THE COURT: Tell me in general what you know about
7 this case.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I know it emanated -- I know
9 that he resides in Texas. I don't have the specific details
10 of it, but the coverage of the events itself I have watched
11 and read very closely. It's part of what I -- my 12 relationship with journalists that I work with. I watch
13 what they cover. I look at what they cover. I have weighed
14 in with reporters from time to time on issues. I've had a
15 couple discussions with journalists about this particular
16 incident, you know, and what happened.

17 THE COURT: The January 6th events.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: [NODDED HEAD]

19 THE COURT: This defendant in particular?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, nothing in particular to 21 the defendant and the intricacies of the case. I am
22 generally aware of it. That's why I noted in my
23 questionnaire that I have a strong view on it. I have a --
24 you know, because of my knowledge and friends who worked in 25 the Capitol, I feel very strongly about it and because of

1 the knowledge of somebody who I know who set up the rally.
2 I have a strong opinion on that and not a favorable one.

3 THE COURT: All right. And would you be able to
4 set aside those strong views and come to this case as a
5 neutral juror and be fair and impartial to both sides?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I want to be candid, Your 7 Honor, I don't think so. I don't believe so, no. I have 8 very strong views. A lot of it probably bleeds over into my 9 politics. I feel very strongly about what happened.

10 THE COURT: And even though a criminal defendant,
11 in our criminal justice system, is presumed innocent, you
12 would have a hard time --

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure.

14 THE COURT: -- treating him that way?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can respect that. My father
16 was a lawyer. I work with a lot of attorneys in my
17 business. I am giving you an honest assessment --

18 THE COURT: That's all we want.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- of how I feel about it. I
20 understand. And I really, you know, respect the right of 21 defendants in the legal system. I -- again, I am very 22 differential to that. I am giving you an honest assessment
23 of where I am personally and how it viscerally affected me
24 and the people I know, and the opinions I have of the people
25 who helped organize -- this one individual. And then I've

1 had conversations with people about this person who I --
2 just was incredulous that they did what they did. I hear
3 what you are saying. I am just giving you an honest
4 assessment.

5 THE COURT: That's what we want. We want you to 6 be honest. So I appreciate your candor. So it sounds like,
7 based on all of the factual information you know, and your
8 strong views, it would be very hard to be fair and impartial
9 in this case.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, it would.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Candidly, it would. Again,
13 due to the folks I know who worked in the Hill and 14 experiences they had, that they relayed to me, in addition
15 to my strongly-held views about how it happened, it's 16 something I can't get my head around.

17 THE COURT: You answered yes to the question you
18 have an opinion about Mr. Reffitt's guilt or innocence as 19 you sit here now?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do. I hate to say it.
21 Again, and it's not -- we have to wait for the evidence to 22 present itself and this process to play out. But I will
23 tell you that I -- again, I can't sit here and be candid
24 with you and say I objectively would be able to put that 25 aside, Your Honor, that's why I answered the way I did.

1 THE COURT: All right. Well, I appreciate that.

2 And you also indicated you would have difficulty
3 following all of these instructions that you know about in 4 our criminal justice system. You answered yes to question
5 15 that has to do with your strong personal beliefs.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And the reason why I answered
7 that way, maybe I misunderstood the question, is given my
8 bias; that was why I answered the way I did.

9 THE COURT: All right. And you also indicated you
10 would struggle to avoid all media and research.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That is another thing. It is 12 the nature of my business. I have to read the news. I do
13 it every day. I move around with several of the daily
14 newspapers with me. It is the nature of what I do. So it's 15 very hard not to come across this, obviously, since this is 16 playing out in the news right now. So I am an avid news
17 follower.

18 THE COURT: All right. And you are a P.R.
19 communications consultant?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

21 THE COURT: Do you work for anyone in particular?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I have my own
23 consultancy so it's me. In particular, a variety of 24 different clients. I have represented attorneys throughout
25 the course of my business, but also companies, trade

1 associations, your typical Washington fare, in terms of 2 clients.

3 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Berkower?

4 MS. BERKOWER: Good afternoon.

5 So, um, I understand you said you have very strong
6 feelings about the events of January 6th. Did I understand
7 you correctly?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 MS. BERKOWER: And just to be clear, do your 10 strong feelings concern the crowd and the events generally?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Versus?

12 MS. BERKOWER: Versus individual people who were 13 there?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would say the event itself
15 that led up to what happened at the Capitol, I have a strong
16 view on that, because I am aware of a certain individual
17 that was part of the organization of that. And I'm still 18 amazed by it. So the event itself.

19 As far as the individual participants, one
20 defendant versus another, and what -- you know, what one did
21 and another didn't do, no, I am not weighed in on any 22 individual person.

23 MS. BERKOWER: And so is it fair to say that you
24 think individuals should be held responsible for their own
25 actions, rather than the actions of the overall event?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think each individual needs
2 to be held accountable for their own actions.

3 MS. BERKOWER: And would you agree that that
4 should be on the evidence specific to what that person did?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure.

6 MS. BERKOWER: And if the judge were to instruct 7 you to set aside your feelings generally about the event
8 overall, and just to focus only on the evidence about what 9 this defendant did, as presented in court, would you be able 10 to do that?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: As I said, I don't think I
12 will be able to do that because I read a lot of the news
13 coverage of the specific individuals that were charged. And 14 I'm afraid that that bias could be brought into my 15 participating in the jury.

16 MS. BERKOWER: Even though you don't know anything
17 about this particular defendant?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I didn't say I didn't 19 know anything about it. I said I don't recall any specific
20 details about it, but I have read enough about it that I am
21 generally aware of the case.

22 MS. BERKOWER: And I think you said, though, a
23 minute ago, you have no opinion about this defendant's
24 guilt. You would have to wait for the evidence. Right?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure. I don't have any

1 opinion about the guilt, but I am going into it with some
2 knowledge of the facts and the circumstances of it. I'm not
3 coming into this in a vacuum, is what I am trying to
4 explain.

5 MS. BERKOWER: Understood.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You know? I am trying to be 7 as candid as I can, because I want to be as respectful to 8 you and to the defendant, to say I have a general view that 9 at the margins, anything that was done, whether it was very
10 active, not active, whether somebody actually did something
11 physical, I just have a general view that that shouldn't 12 have happened. The Capitol should not have been -- you
13 know, invaded or whatever the word you want to use. It
14 shouldn't have happened. If you are participating in that,
15 to me, I can't get -- I don't get my head around it. I just 16 can't.

17 MS. BERKOWER: I understand you have knowledge of 18 the events of January 6th. Right? You've read a lot about 19 it. Right? But would you be all to keep an open mind
20 listening to the evidence so that this defendant is judged
21 only on the evidence against him?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know how other ways I
23 could say it. I mean, I don't think so. That's my -- if I
24 was chosen and I had to look at the evidence, I'm not going
25 to disqualify exculpatory evidence, you know? But my

1 instinct is that I'm going to come in with a very high, high
2 level of skepticism, and that's how I come in.

3 MS. BERKOWER: But if the government weren't able
4 to prove the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt,
5 would you still acquit him?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: If the government wasn't able
7 to prove beyond a reasonable doubt, I would have to acquit
8 him.

9 MS. BERKOWER: And would you be assessing whether 10 the government proved beyond a reasonable doubt that he was 11 guilty based only on the evidence presented about him?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'd have to.

13 MS. BERKOWER: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Welch?

15 MR. WELCH: Just a couple, Your Honor.

16 You remain afraid that your bias would be brought 17 to the jury; is that fair to say?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 MR. WELCH: You were viscerally affected by what 20 happened; is that fair to say?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 MR. WELCH: No further questions.

23 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

25 MR. WELCH: I have a question for the Court.

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 (Prospective juror steps down.)

3 THE COURT: All right. Is there a motion?

4 MR. WELCH: I do have a motion for cause you, Your
5 Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

7 MR. WELCH: And this man is clearly being as 8 candid as he can be. He is afraid that his bias will come
9 in the jury room. If you order him to serve, he will serve.
10 And he will do his best to follow the Court's order. But he
11 remains afraid that his bias, in spite of the Court's 12 instruction, would be brought into that jury room, because 13 he feels so strongly. He told us he's trying to be as 14 candid as he can. And for these reasons, he should be 15 stricken for cause.

16 THE COURT: All right.

17 Ms. Berkower?

18 MS. BERKOWER: Your Honor, while it's true this 19 juror did say he had -- you know, information about the 20 events of January 6th and a preconceived notion, when he was 21 pushed on whether he would assess this defendant's guilt
22 only based on the evidence presented in the courtroom he 23 said, "I'd have to."

24 When asked if the government didn't meet its 25 burden proving the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable

1 doubt, would he still acquit, he said, "I would have to." I
2 submit that if Your Honor did order him to serve on the
3 jury, he would follow the Court's instructions and set aside
4 what his preconceived opinions were coming in. Thank you.

5 THE COURT: All right. Well, I think he said in 6 almost a dozen different ways he felt he was biased here.
7 Both in terms of the facts he knows, as well as his very
8 strong feelings. And I think he was trying to be as candid
9 as he could.

10 Yes, he said, if forced to serve, he would do his 11 best to follow my instructions. But that's not the kind of 12 juror we want, who admittedly says, you know, again, a dozen
13 different ways, I am biased toward one side. So I will 14 strike him for cause.

15 The next juror is 0663, answered yes to number 2,
16 number 3, number 4, number 19 and number 20.

17 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, I have juror number
18 0663.

19 (Prospective juror steps up.)

20 THE COURT: If you are comfortable taking off your
21 mask, please do.

22 All right. Good afternoon. Thank you for your 23 patience. You answered yes to having either you or someone 24 you know having a direct or indirect connection to the 25 events at the U.S. Capitol on January 6th, 2021. Can you

1 explain?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure. I knew a person -- was
3 friends with a person whose brother was arrested for being
4 at the Capitol and participating. There was a news article
5 about him.

6 THE COURT: If you can turn your head towards the 7 microphone. Sorry.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So we -- people that knew him
9 sort of passed around that news article when it came out. I
10 think a little bit earlier this year. I know him but I am
11 not -- I don't have contact with him.

12 THE COURT: How closely do you know him?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He is a brother of person I
14 used to be friends with.

15 THE COURT: And where does he live?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The person that was arrested?

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I believe he lives in D.C. or 19 in Maryland or D.C. But I know that according to the 20 article, not firsthand.

21 THE COURT: All right. How often do you see this
22 person?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Never.

24 THE COURT: And how often do you see the sister?
25 The friend?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The brother. Not anymore at 2 all. No contact at all.

3 THE COURT: Since when?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Maybe like five or six years
5 ago. We were friends. No longer.

6 THE COURT: So you learned about this only through
7 an article that was passed around by other friends?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. Friends also him, yeah.

9 THE COURT: All right. And do you know is that
10 individual being prosecuted in this court?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't recall where he was 12 being prosecuted.

13 THE COURT: And according to the article, at 14 least, what was he accused of doing? Do you remember?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Similar things in this case.
16 I don't know if there was possession of any firearms, but 17 just being at the Capitol and stuff like that.

18 To be honest with you, I don't really remember the 19 details of the article. I just recall that. So I wanted to 20 mark it just to be doubly sure.

21 THE COURT: Was that just a single article?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've only read one article.

23 THE COURT: All right. Have you followed other
24 news stories about the January 6th event?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Have you read or seen anything about
2 Mr. Reffitt, the defendant in this case?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

4 THE COURT: What about other individuals apart
5 from the brother of the friend of yours?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Specific people?

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't recall anyone's name,
9 specifically, but sort of what they look like, one person in 10 particular looked particularly rememberable (sic) from the 11 news of that day.

12 THE COURT: All right. Do you recognize
13 Mr. Reffitt, who's seated over there?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

15 THE COURT: All right. Based on what you've seen,
16 based on what you've heard, have you formed any opinion
17 about the guilt of those who were involved in the events of 18 January 6th?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Individually? Um -- I guess
20 in -- to be fully transparent --

21 THE COURT: Please do.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- I think probably, yes. But 23 I think I could be impartial hearing the evidence of one
24 person. I'm just -- it's kind of hard to say.

25 THE COURT: No, I appreciate your candor very

1 much.

2 What I'm trying to figure out is whether you could
3 put aside whatever opinions or views you have about the
4 guilt or innocence of others, and if you were chosen as a
5 juror in this case, decide this case based solely on what 6 you hear in this courtroom in terms of witness testimony and 7 other evidence and the instructions that I give you?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I think I can do that.

9 THE COURT: And you think you could put aside what 10 you've read and what you've thought and these feelings that 11 you hold now in deciding this case, if you were chosen as a 12 juror?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 THE COURT: As you sit here now, do you have any
15 opinion as to Mr. Reffitt's guilt or innocence in this case?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

17 THE COURT: And do you understand that under our 18 system of laws, that criminal defendants are presumed
19 innocent?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: And they can only be convicted if the 22 government proves the elements of the offense beyond a
23 reasonable doubt?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

25 THE COURT: You also indicated that you or a

1 family member or close friend is a lawyer or a law student
2 or works in a law office?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: And who might that be?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Me.

6 THE COURT: You. Okay. What kind of lawyer are
7 you?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work for the Office of 9 Personnel Management, federal government. I work in their 10 Office of General Counsel doing administrative insurance
11 litigation.

12 THE COURT: How long have you been there?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've been at the Office of 14 Personnel Management for 11 years and in the General
15 Counsel's Office for six? Six.

16 THE COURT: What did you do before that in the 17 law?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I went to law school before
19 that.

20 THE COURT: Based on your experience as a lawyer,
21 and your studies as a law student, do you think you could 22 follow the instructions I give you in this case, even if 23 they conflicted with what you thought you knew about the law
24 as a student or as a lawyer?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Now, this question, if you would like
2 to answer privately on the telephone here, we can do that.
3 But the question you answered yes to was, Have you or 4 someone you know well been arrested, charged or convicted of 5 a crime or been a victim or witness to a crime? Is that
6 something you feel comfortable answering publicly?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was a victim of a crime. I
10 was mugged at gunpoint and hit with the firearm while I was 11 being mugged.

12 THE COURT: And when did this occur?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: December 2014.

14 THE COURT: Was that here in the District of 15 Columbia?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Was the person who hit you and mugged
18 you apprehended?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They were arrested and they 20 were not charged because they were a juvenile.

21 THE COURT: Is there anything about the way that 22 case was handled by the police that would make you, you
23 know, either frustrated or supportive of the police you
24 might hear in this case?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

1 THE COURT: Is there anything about that
2 experience as a victim of a firearm-related crime that would
3 make you view this case in an impartial and neutral way? As 4 you may recall from this morning, this case does have
5 allegations, unproven allegations of possession of firearms.
6 Firearms were not fired, but there are allegations that
7 Mr. Reffitt used and carried a firearm on Capitol grounds
8 and that he transported firearms.

9 Given your experience, as a victim of a
10 gun-related crime, would you be inclined to favor the 11 government's side, the prosecution's side?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um -- um, I guess I would say
13 I have strong feelings about gun violence and gun
14 possession, but I do understand how to act or sort of 15 receive information and take and analyze that impartially.

16 THE COURT: Do you think you could be fair to both
17 sides in this case, despite your strong views about gun
18 possession?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think I could.

20 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Berkower?

21 MS. BERKOWER: Nothing from the government, Your
22 Honor.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Welch?

24 MR. WELCH: No questions. Thank you.

25 THE COURT: All right. You may be excused.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. Thanks.

2 (Prospective juror steps down.)

3 THE COURT: All right. The next juror is 0826.

4 This juror has answered yes to 3, 4, 18, 22 and 23. I'll
5 start with 22 and 23.

6 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, juror number 0826.

7 (Prospective juror steps up.)

8 THE COURT: Good afternoon, sir.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

10 THE COURT: Thank you for your patience.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No problem.

12 THE COURT: If you don't mind taking off your mask

13 --

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure.

15 THE COURT: -- if you feel comfortable, please do.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure.

17 THE COURT: I wanted to start with two of the yes
18 answers you gave to questions 22 and 23, one of which said
19 that serving as a juror would be an extreme hardship for 20 you. Is that a question you feel comfortable answering in 21 public?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure.

23 THE COURT: All right. can you explain?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. Actually, I work for 25 D.C. Public Schools. And we have a staff of three. One of

1 them is about to go on vacation. So it's only going to
2 leave one person in the building. So it wouldn't be
3 feasible for just one person.

4 THE COURT: All right. And what is your role with 5 the D.C. public schools?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am a maintenance supervisor.

7 THE COURT: Do you work at multiple schools or 8 just one school?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just one school.

10 THE COURT: Which school is that?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Martin Luther King Elementary.

12 THE COURT: And you say one person is going on 13 vacation. When is that?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He is starting tomorrow.

15 THE COURT: And will be gone how long?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: About two weeks.

17 THE COURT: All right. You also said that you
18 have some health or physical problems that would make it
19 difficult for you to serve as a juror. Can you answer that 20 publicly? Are you uncomfortable doing so?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure. I have diabetes. A lot
22 of times I can't sit real long. I have to go to the 23 restroom a lot.

24 THE COURT: So the plan for trial would likely be 25 to sit from approximately 9:30 to 4:30, 4:45 each day. We

1 take an hour break in the middle of the day, and we take two
2 breaks one in the morning and one in the afternoon. Would
3 that be difficult for you?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: It would?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: How often would you need breaks?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Like 15 minutes out of each
9 hour.

10 THE COURT: So every hour you need a break?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: All right. Let me ask you about some 13 other questions you've said yes to.

14 You said you've heard news about the January 6th
15 events and seen news about either Mr. Reffitt or other
16 individuals who were at the Capitol on January 6th. Can you
17 describe that?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I mean, throughout the news
19 media, that's how, you know, I knew about it.

20 THE COURT: And is this close to January 6th or 21 have you continued to follow it to current day?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I mean, around January
23 6th and a couple weeks after it; that was about it.

24 THE COURT: Have you followed stories more
25 recently?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I haven't.

2 THE COURT: And these are stories that you saw in
3 the newspaper or on television or both?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: On television.

5 THE COURT: Anything about Mr. Reffitt himself?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

7 THE COURT: Anything about any other individual
8 you recall --

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

10 THE COURT: -- by name? Based on what you saw or 11 based on what you heard on the TV have you formed any 12 opinion about the guilt or innocence of those who are 13 involved in the Capitol?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

15 THE COURT: Despite what you've heard and seen in 16 the news, would you be able to come here, if you were 17 selected as a juror, and decide this case based solely on 18 the evidence as presented in the courtroom and the 19 instructions I give you?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: As you sit here now, do you have any
22 opinion at all as to Mr. Reffitt's guilt or innocence?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not at all.

24 THE COURT: And you understand that he's presumed
25 innocent as he sits here?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Would you have any problem following
3 that instruction?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

5 THE COURT: You also indicated that you, your
6 family members or close friends work in law enforcement.
7 Who might that be?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My stepdaughter.

9 THE COURT: What does she do?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She's a security officer.

11 THE COURT: Where does she work?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She works at Admiral
13 Insurance. Up on -- I think it's northwest.

14 THE COURT: Is there anything about your 15 relationship and close association with her that would make 16 you favor one side or the other in this case?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

18 THE COURT: Would you weigh the credibility of 19 police officers, just like you would weigh the credibility
20 of any other witness?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Berkhower?

23 MR. NESTLER: No follow-up, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Welch?

25 MR. WELCH: No, thank you.

1 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

3 (Prospective juror steps down.)

4 THE COURT: Just curious what each side's position
5 is on his hardship, both his job and his diabetes? Is he 6 someone that you all would be willing to move to the end of 7 the list? I don't know that either present a basis,
8 necessarily, to strike for cause. But I think we could take 9 breaks.

10 MS. BERKOWER: Your Honor, I think we had another
11 juror who had a similar medical issue. It seems like breaks
12 would be appropriate, as it was for her, for this juror. So
13 in our view --

14 THE COURT: But it's that as well as the job. And 15 the job you feel the same?

16 MS. BERKOWER: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: So don't move him to the bottom?

18 MS. BERKOWER: We would request we not move him.

19 THE COURT: All right. All right. So he'll stay
20 in the pool.

21 All right. The next juror is 0193, has answered
22 yes to 4, 18, 19 and 20.

23 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, juror number 0193.

24 (Prospective juror steps up.)

25 THE COURT: Good afternoon, sir. Thank you for

1 your patience. If you feel comfortable taking off your
2 mask, please do.

3 So you answered yes to the question that you have
4 seen or heard news either about Mr. Reffitt or about other
5 individuals who were at the Capitol on January 6th; is that
6 right?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: And can you describe what it is that
9 you've seen or heard?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I mean, just kind of casual
11 absorbing of things that have happened. I don't really pay 12 attention to much news at all. But I think some things have 13 been unavoidable, just given kind of how ubiquitous they've 14 been.

15 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I missed that last part.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think it's kind of hard to 17 completely avoid things. It's been ubiquitous for the last 18 year or so.

19 THE COURT: Right. So you are following the 20 January 6th events, what you see in the headlines; is that 21 fair to say? Are you tracking it more carefully?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Less actively than that. I
23 try pretty hard to avoid news.

24 THE COURT: All right. To your knowledge have you
25 seen anything or heard anything about Mr. Reffitt?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

2 THE COURT: Based on what you've seen or heard,
3 have you formed any opinion about the guilt of the people
4 involved in the events at the Capitol on January 6th?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I mean, I don't think I can
6 actively say, Yes. I mean, I don't know.

7 THE COURT: Well, let me ask you this: To the 8 extent you have any opinion at all about those events, would 9 you be -- do you think you would be able to put that opinion
10 or those views aside and act as a fair and impartial juror
11 in this case and consider only the evidence that's presented
12 in court in deciding whether Mr. Reffitt is innocent or 13 guilty of the crimes charged?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I believe so.

15 THE COURT: All right. You realize what you've 16 seen or heard may not be accurate?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-huh.

18 THE COURT: Certainly not evidence in this case?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

20 THE COURT: You appreciate that?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 You've also indicated that you or your family
24 members or close friends work in law enforcement.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You said that prosecution was

1 involved in that?

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a friend who interned
4 several times in law school through a prosecution's office.
5 I guess that was my definition of that.

6 THE COURT: Okay. How long ago was that?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The last couple summers.

8 THE COURT: Is this a close friend?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

10 THE COURT: Is he or she now at the prosecutor's
11 office?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, not currently. He is 13 finishing up law school right now.

14 THE COURT: Did you have conversations with him
15 about his work there?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really.

17 THE COURT: Is there anything about your
18 relationship with him that would prevent you from being fair
19 to both sides in this case?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

21 THE COURT: You also mentioned you or a family
22 member or close friend is a lawyer, student or works in a
23 legal office. Is that the same friend?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, my wife is also a
25 lawyer.

1 THE COURT: What kind of lawyer is she?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She does mostly does cyber
3 security and data privacy work.

4 THE COURT: All right. You are not a lawyer
5 yourself?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

7 THE COURT: Do you talk about the law with your 8 wife?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I mean, yes, it's come up but 10 not regularly.

11 THE COURT: I'm just wondering whether you would
12 have any problem following the legal instructions that I
13 give you in this case. Is there anything about your 14 conversations with your friend or your wife that would 15 impede your ability to do that?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't believe so.

17 THE COURT: All right. Finally, you answered, yes
18 to the question that you or someone you know well has been 19 arrested, charged or convicted of a crime or been a victim
20 or a witness to a crime. And if you would prefer to answer
21 this over the telephone headset, we can do that.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I mean, I have a few
23 misdemeanors on my record. So, yes, but that's it.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything about the way
25 you were treated? Were you prosecuted for those? You were

1 prosecuted for those misdemeanors?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Is there anything about the way you
4 were treated in that process, either by the police or by the 5 prosecutors, that would make it hard for you to give both
6 sides a fair trial in this case?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't believe so. They were
8 young, dumb mistakes. I would like to think I've grown a
9 little bit since then.

10 THE COURT: All right. Nothing further.
11 Ms. Berkower?

12 MS. BERKOWER: Good afternoon.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hi.

14 MS. BERKOWER: Just a few follow-up questions.
15 You said you try to avoid the news.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

17 MS. BERKOWER: Can I ask why?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: There's some research done
19 that not paying attention to the news increases happiness.
20 And I kind of abide by that pretty strongly. I've just 21 never been one for current events.

22 MS. BERKOWER: And you said you have a few young,
23 dumb mistakes that were misdemeanors. Could you say what 24 those are?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: One was, I believe, petty

1 theft, and the other one was just a fist fight gone wrong.
2 I think it was a misdemeanor assault.

3 MS. BERKOWER: And were those here in D.C.?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, Virginia and Maryland.

5 MS. BERKOWER: And how long ago were those?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Ten years? Eleven? One ten
7 and one eleven.

8 MS. BERKOWER: Okay. Thank you.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Welch?

10 MR. WELCH: No questions. Thank you.

11 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir.

12 (Prospective juror steps down.)

13 THE COURT: All right. This next juror, 1459, has 14 not answered yes to any question.

15 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, juror number 1459.

16 (Prospective juror steps up.)

17 THE COURT: Good afternoon, sir.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

19 THE COURT: Thank you for your patience. If you
20 feel comfortable taking off your mask, would you please? So
21 you didn't answer yes to any of my questions.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

23 THE COURT: Have you not heard anything in the 24 news about the events at the Capitol on January 6th of 2021?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, I just didn't really pay

1 attention to it.

2 THE COURT: So you saw it in the news, you just
3 didn't read it carefully. Was that on the TV or in the 4 newspaper?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: TV, basically or mostly.

6 THE COURT: All right. Try to keep your voice up
7 so the court reporter can take down what you are saying.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was TV mostly.

9 THE COURT: All right. And was that close to 10 January 6th of 2021 or more recently or both?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: January -- it was closer to 12 January 2021.

13 THE COURT: All right. Were you in D.C. on that 14 date?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Were you anywhere near the Capitol?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

18 THE COURT: What did you see on TV?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just chaos. There was a lot
20 going on.

21 THE COURT: Have you followed what's happened
22 since then in the news?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 THE COURT: Based on what you saw and what you've 25 heard since January 6th, have you formed any opinions about

1 the guilt or innocence of those who were involved in the
2 Capitol events on January 6th?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, ma'am.

4 THE COURT: Would you be able to put aside what
5 you've seen and heard and decide this case if you were 6 picked as a juror, based only on what you hear here in the
7 courtroom?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: As you sit here, you have no opinion
10 on Mr. Reffitt's guilt or innocence?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, ma'am.

12 THE COURT: Do you recognize him at all?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

14 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Berkower?

15 MS. BERKOWER: Good afternoon.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

17 MS. BERKOWER: May I ask how long have you lived
18 in D.C.?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: How long? Probably since
20 elementary school.

21 MS. BERKOWER: So quite a while?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 MS. BERKOWER: And are you working?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

25 MS. BERKOWER: What is your job?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work as a CSA at Walgreens.

2 MS. BERKOWER: And is that in D.C.?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 MS. BERKOWER: What is a CSA?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Customer service associate.

6 MS. BERKOWER: Okay. Sorry. Do you manage other
7 people there?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I'm not the manager. I am
9 just a cashier.

10 MS. BERKOWER: Okay. Thank you.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You are welcome.

12 LEFT2: No questions.

13 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You're welcome.

15 (Prospective juror steps down.)

16 THE COURT: All right. Next juror, 0543, answered
17 yes to the mask question and 1, 2, 3, 4, 18, 19, 20, 24.

18 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, juror number 0543.

19 (Prospective juror steps up.)

20 THE COURT: Good afternoon. You may have a seat.
21 Thank you for your patience. Sorry it's taking so
22 long.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's okay. Thank you.

24 THE COURT: All right. So you've answered yes to 25 a number of questions. The first being that you either live

1 or work at or near the U.S. Capitol. Which is it?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do both. I live in Adams
3 Morgan, about a couple miles away. And I work over in 4 Anacostia.

5 THE COURT: All right. And what do you do?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work for the Coast Guard.

7 THE COURT: All right. Were you inconvenienced on 8 January 6th by the events at the Capitol?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, not really.

10 THE COURT: You said you or someone you know have 11 a direct or indirect connection to the Capitol events?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. It was a friend of a 13 friend from high school. Her parents had been there. But 14 it was just through hearsay, so that's all I knew.

15 THE COURT: You have to keep your voice up so that 16 the court reporter --

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry. It was a friend of 18 a friend from high school. Her parents were there. Through 19 hearsay I knew that.

20 THE COURT: Through hearsay.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

22 THE COURT: Were they arrested in connection with 23 the January 6th events?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't believe so. I'm not 25 sure though.

1 THE COURT: All right. Did you hear any details
2 through your friend or through her parents?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

4 THE COURT: Did you have any other connection --

5 COURTROOM DEPUTY: No.

6 THE COURT: -- to the Capitol events?

7 All right. You also heard news about the January
8 6th Capitol events, and you've heard news about either
9 Mr. Reffitt or others who were at the Capitol on January
10 6th. Can you describe, generally --

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just general news, just from 12 having the TV on during the actual events. But nothing
13 substantial, in general, and I've never heard of the 14 gentleman for this case.

15 THE COURT: All right. Have you followed the news
16 relating to the Capitol events --

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really, no.

18 THE COURT: -- since then?

19 Based on what you have seen or heard, have you
20 formed any opinion about the guilt or innocence of those who 21 were involved in the Capitol events?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, ma'am.

23 THE COURT: Do you feel that despite what you've 24 seen and heard, you could come to this courtroom and decide
25 this case only based on the evidence you hear in this

1 courtroom and the instructions I provide?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

3 THE COURT: Do you think you could put aside out
4 of your mind what you've seen and heard already?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

6 THE COURT: You say that you, your family members
7 or close friends work in law enforcement. Is that you at 8 the Coast Guard or are there others?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: There's others. So I work at 10 the Coast Guard. My dad is retired FBI. And then my 11 stepmother works for Customs and Border Protection.

12 THE COURT: All right. If you were to serve as a 13 juror in this case, you'd likely hear from FBI agents as 14 witnesses in this case. Do you think, because your dad is a
15 former FBI agent, that you would give their testimony
16 greater weight than you would give any other witness in the 17 case?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't believe so. No,
19 ma'am.

20 THE COURT: All right. Would you judge the 21 testimony of a police officer or agent, just like you would 22 any other witnesses?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I would based on 24 expertise alone on the other side's witness or FBI or police
25 officer.

1 THE COURT: All right. And how -- given that
2 you're an employee of the federal government and you have
3 some family members who are also employees of the federal
4 government, would you be more inclined to favor the federal
5 government, the prosecution in this case, simply by virtue
6 of your job?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I feel like I wasn't --
8 my branch of work doesn't really correlate to any of this.
9 I feel like I can keep that extremely separate.

10 THE COURT: Right.

11 You also said that either you, a family member or 12 close friend is a lawyer, law student or works in a legal 13 office.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. My dad has a law
15 degree. He went to law school prior to being in the FBI.

16 THE COURT: What did he do for the FBI?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He was a major case
18 specialist.

19 THE COURT: All right. Do you talk about his 20 cases with him?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not regularly. Just one, a
22 long time ago, the sniper case he was working on. But that 23 was about the only case I really talked to him about.

24 THE COURT: The what case?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The sniper case. The D.C.

1 sniper.

2 THE COURT: Oh, okay. Was there anything, based
3 on what you've heard from him or any other lawyer that would
4 make you concerned that you couldn't follow the instructions
5 I give you in this case?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

7 THE COURT: So you also answered yes to the 8 question about you or someone you know well having been 9 arrested, charged, convicted of a crime or been a victim or 10 a witness to a crime.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

12 THE COURT: Is that a question you feel
13 comfortable answering in public?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. My brother was arrested
15 for a DUI about seven or eight years ago.

16 THE COURT: Was there anything about the way the 17 police handled that that would make you --

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

19 THE COURT: -- biased in any way?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

21 THE COURT: And then you did answer that you are 22 not comfortable with the attorneys or me not wearing a mask,
23 but you have a question mark by that.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. I misunderstood the 25 question. I am comfortable with that; that is why I marked

1 it.

2 THE COURT: Oh, you are comfortable with us not
3 having our mask on?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

5 THE COURT: All right. Then I am going to take
6 mine off.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's why I circled it.

8 THE COURT: And you are welcome to take yours off
9 too, if you feel better.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. Thanks.

11 THE COURT: All right. All right.
12 That's it. Ms. Berkower?

13 MS. BERKOWER: No follow-up, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Welch?

15 MR. WELCH: No questions. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

18 (Prospective juror steps down.)

19 THE COURT: All right. The next juror is 0514.
20 That juror answered yes to 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 15, 18 and 27.

21 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, juror number 0514.
22 (Prospective juror steps up.)

23 THE COURT: Good afternoon. Thank you for your 24 patience.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

1 THE COURT: If you feel comfortable taking your
2 mask off, please do.

3 All right. You've answered yes to the question
4 that you live or work near the U.S. Capitol. Which is it?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I live near the U.S. Capitol,
6 about 10 minutes walking distance.

7 THE COURT: All right. Were you there at your
8 home on January 6th of 2021?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Did you go outside and see the Capitol
11 events?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: You did. You walked to the Capitol?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I walked near the 15 Capitol.

16 THE COURT: And where were you standing?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Like across the street.

18 THE COURT: On the east side or the west side?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: On the --

20 THE COURT: Supreme Court side or the monument
21 side?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Monument side.

23 THE COURT: Okay. What did you see?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I saw a whole bunch of 25 activity. A lot of people. Police activity.

1 THE COURT: What time were you there? Do you
2 remember?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can't remember. I would say
4 mid-afternoon probably.

5 THE COURT: When you arrived, had the rioters
6 already breached the Capitol?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Do you recognize Mr. Reffitt here in 9 the courtroom?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

11 THE COURT: Did you see anyone get hurt that day?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

13 THE COURT: Were you scared for your own safety?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

15 THE COURT: You also indicated that you've heard
16 news about the January 6th events and news about particular
17 individuals. Are any of those individuals Mr. Reffitt?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

19 THE COURT: What have you heard about particular
20 individuals?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I follow close attention to 22 the news. I know the individuals who -- you know, I don't
23 know them by name, necessarily. Obviously, you know, I read
24 stories about folks who have breached the Capitol.

25 THE COURT: I'm curious. Are you just reading

1 headlines or are you searching for information about the
2 Capitol events?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I read headlines and the 4 stories.

5 THE COURT: Is this in the newspaper? On the TV?
6 On the internet?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Everywhere.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Do you listen to any podcasts
9 or get Tweets about the January 6th events?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No podcast but Tweets, yes. I
11 use Twitter to consume news a lot.

12 THE COURT: What kind of Tweets do you receive?
13 From what sources?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mostly news sources and 15 reporters that I follow. A lot of reporters who cover
16 January 6th.

17 THE COURT: Can you tell us who, exactly?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's a long list. I can't 19 name them all.

20 THE COURT: And these are reporters who 21 specifically covered January 6th events or have a broader 22 news feed?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: These are reporters who are 24 generally national security reporters, Justice reporters,
25 political/national news reporters, folks that -- some of

1 these folks I know from my work.

2 THE COURT: And despite the fact that you receive
3 Tweets from folks who cover the Capitol events, you haven't
4 read or seen anything about Mr. Reffitt?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not that I can recall.

6 THE COURT: What about today? Did you see
7 anything before you came to court today?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

9 THE COURT: Did you read the paper today?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I read the news in the morning
11 on my phone and a few other outlets.

12 THE COURT: All right. You indicated that you do
13 have such strong feelings or opinions about the events at 14 the Capitol on January 6th that it would be difficult for 15 you to put them aside and serve as a fair and impartial
16 juror in this case.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Is that true?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That is true.

20 THE COURT: So our goal here, as I explained this
21 morning, is to try to find a neutral set of jurors. There
22 are many people who've heard and seen news reports about the 23 Capitol and have opinions about it, but we don't want anyone
24 to serve on the jury whose views are so formed that they 25 come into the courtroom leaning in favor of one side or the

1 other. Is that how you feel you are as you sit here now?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I do feel that biased in
3 a way.

4 THE COURT: And you don't feel like you could put
5 your bias aside and decide this case based on the evidence
6 presented in the courtroom and the instructions I give you?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I feel that as much as I
8 would try, I don't think I could overcome that bias.

9 THE COURT: And you also said you have an opinion
10 about Mr. Reffitt's guilt or innocence?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: And what does that stem from?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: From my following of the 14 events of January 6th, my background working in government
15 and national security, and knowledge of just the justice
16 system.

17 THE COURT: And what is your background in 18 national security?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I used to be a spokesperson
20 for the Department of Homeland Security.

21 THE COURT: And so based on that prior role, you
22 feel -- are you saying predisposed towards the government's 23 side of the case?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would say that.

25 THE COURT: You also indicated you'd struggle to

1 follow my instruction to avoid all media and research?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Would you struggle to follow my other
4 instructions --

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

6 THE COURT: -- such as the defendant's presumed
7 innocent?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

9 THE COURT: You wouldn't struggle to do that?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

11 THE COURT: But yet you do feel you have some 12 biases you bring into the courtroom.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I think I have inherent 14 biases I don't think I could overcome, as much as I'd try
15 to.

16 THE COURT: All right. In terms of any other
17 family members, close friends who work in law enforcement,
18 you answered yes to that. Was that from your own
19 experience?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was from my own experience
21 but also, I would say, from my experience I do know a lot of 22 people in law enforcement.

23 THE COURT: Finally, in the catch-all you said
24 there is some other reason that makes it difficult for you
25 sit fairly and impartially as a juror in this case. Can you

1 say what that is?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have very strong political
3 views. I think I have very strong political views about the 4 events that happened on January 6th that would make it very
5 difficult for me to be unbiased.

6 THE COURT: Despite the instructions I would give
7 you --

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: -- you think you would struggle to 10 apply those fairly and impartially?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: All right. Thank you for your candor.
13 Ms. Berkower?

14 MS. BERKOWER: Good afternoon.

15 You said you have a background working in 16 government and national security. What is your current 17 position?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am head of communications at 19 a defense firm.

20 MS. BERKOWER: A defense firm?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 MS. BERKOWER: And what do you mean by a defense
23 firm?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We are a tech company that
25 specializes in national defense contracts. So we work

1 exclusively with the DOD.

2 MS. BERKOWER: Got it.

3 And you said that you walked over and watched
4 events at the Capitol on January 6th?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: [NODDED HEAD]

6 MS. BERKOWER: What made you go over there?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I saw it on the news, and it
8 was so close to my apartment, I wanted to go see what was
9 going on.

10 MS. BERKOWER: Now I know you said you have strong
11 feelings about the events of that day; is that right?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 MS. BERKOWER: And you understand the judge will 14 order you to set them aside --

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 MS. BERKOWER: -- right? Are you saying you won't
17 follow that order?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm saying I would try to but 19 I don't know that I could.

20 MS. BERKOWER: Would you keep an open mind to the 21 evidence you hear in the court?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 MS. BERKOWER: Would you judge the defendant just 24 on the evidence about him specifically?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 MS. BERKOWER: You understand the government has
2 to prove the charges in the case beyond a reasonable doubt
3 in order for the jury to convict him. Right?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I understand.

5 MS. BERKOWER: If the government didn't present
6 evidence that proved the defendant's guilt individually,
7 beyond a reasonable doubt, would you vote to acquit him?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 MS. BERKOWER: All right.
10 And -- thank you.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Welch?

13 MR. WELCH: No questions for the venireperson, but 14 I have a question for the Court.

15 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Thank you,
16 sir. You are excused.

17 (Prospective juror steps down.)

18 MR. WELCH: Your Honor, I move for cause. The 19 venireman says he feels biased. As much as he would try, he 20 cannot follow your instructions. He can't overcome his 21 bias, as much as he would try, because he has such strong
22 feelings about what happened on January 6th, and such strong
23 political feelings.

24 THE COURT: Ms. Berkower?

25 MS. BERKOWER: Your Honor, this juror, when push

1 came to shove, said he would only convict this defendant if
2 the government proved its case beyond a reasonable doubt.
3 And he understands that the evidence has to be about this
4 specific defendant, regardless of -- and if he were ordered
5 to set aside his opinions, he believed he could do it. So
6 we would submit he should not be struck.

7 THE COURT: But Ms. Berkower, I think I disagree
8 with you about how we should be looking at this. I don't
9 think we should be push come to shove to get someone to say,
10 Yeah, they would follow my instructions.

11 Like the juror about ten back, he said, I feel
12 biased. I'd try really hard to follow your instructions. I
13 don't think any juror is going to sit here and say, I would 14 blatantly disregard an order of the Court. But he said
15 multiple times he had biases based on what he had read and 16 seen, and he also firsthand was on the west side of the 17 Capitol, which concerns the Court as well. So I don't know 18 to what extent he has, you know, factual information that 19 will be in the back of his head, as he listens to the 20 evidence.

21 I think he said multiple times that he would try
22 as much as he could, but he didn't know. He was very 23 biased, and felt like he could not be a fair and impartial
24 juror. So I just don't think we want to be pushing people
25 to give the answer that they follow my instructions; that's

1 really not the standard I think we ought to be applying.

2 So I will strike him for cause. I think we are
3 going to stop for the jurors. Can you please apologize? We 4 got to all but eight or so.

5 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

7 COURTROOM DEPUTY: You're welcome.

8 THE COURT: All right. So I do know that the 9 marshals are under time constraints. But I do want to 10 address, with Mr. Reffitt present, the PowerPoint of the 11 government. And I guess I'm asking Mr. Hopkins. Time got 12 away from me. How much time do we have?

13 COURTROOM DEPUTY: I will ask the marshals.

14 THE COURT: Do you want to ask them?

15 I'm sorry. I just got distracted.

16 So, folks, the marshals are waiting. I just --
17 the clock got away. So I think we are going to have to take 18 up the issue with the demonstrative exhibit tomorrow.

19 I will say, as I said this morning, I'm inclined
20 to let at least the photographs -- I'm not sure about the 21 video. I know the courts -- some courts have drawn lines
22 and not allowed video testimony in openings.

23 I will try to take a look, if the government can
24 direct me to the portion of the video, I will try to take a
25 look at that tonight. If you can tell me where it is in the

1 eight-minute clip.

2 The other thing that I think is not -- is perhaps
3 unduly prejudicial, even knowing that it is going to come
4 in. I don't think we need the four-letter words. I think
5 you all can do asterisks for that. I know it will come but
6 I don't think you need to inflame the jury at the outset
7 with the four-letter words that are in the statements.

8 I don't have a problem with the statements. I
9 don't have a problem with the photographs. I want to see
10 the clip. And I'm kind of leaning against it, so just to 11 warn you all, to the extent that changes your opening.

12 We have -- is anyone counting how many we've 13 qualified?

14 MR. NESTLER: Twenty-five, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Twenty-five?

16 MR. NESTLER: Yeah.

17 THE COURT: All right. So I would hope we would 18 get to openings tomorrow. And I know that the government
19 has an issue with witnesses. I think it is very unlikely we 20 get beyond the start of the first witness. Ms. Berkower,
21 you said that some were on duty, right, tomorrow evening?

22 MS. BERKOWER: [NODDED HEAD]

23 THE COURT: I would just be ready to go with 24 openings. And I don't know if we'll get to the first 25 witness, but if you could have that witness available. Is

1 there a certain time by which it would be helpful to stop
2 tomorrow?

3 MR. NESTLER: In terms of having the witness here?

4 THE COURT: Yeah. I know that you said they have 5 other obligations tomorrow night? Is that one of the 6 witnesses?

7 MR. NESTLER: It would be helpful to know by 8 mid-day where we are. I guess I'm also -- that will go to 9 how many jurors are called. We still think 36 is the right
10 number, but that is also a different question.

11 THE COURT: Yeah. I thought it was too, but I
12 think the issue is -- we can stay and talk about why I think 13 it's 40, if you all want. But I think we need to let 14 Mr. Reffitt go now.

15 So, Mr. Reffitt, we will see you back in the 16 morning. And, Mr. Welch, if you want to talk through -- 17 Mr. Reffitt, we are basically just trying to figure out how 18 many jurors we have to qualify to have enough for all of the 19 strikes.

20 THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

21 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Your Honor, I need to ask. I
22 heard someone say 25? I have 24. I know what the 23 difference probably is the juror with the resi-- the issue
24 with the residence. I didn't count her.

25 THE COURT: We also want to address that first

1 thing in the morning. All right?

2 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Okay.

3 THE COURT: And to the extent you have any clear
4 law on that, please share it with me tonight or early in the 5 morning. Okay?

6 All right. Well, I think we can have this
7 conversation about -- we will wait for Mr. Reffitt to be
8 present tomorrow in terms of the number of strikes we need.
9 But I think we should let him go. And I'm hesitant to have 10 conversation without him present.

11 All right. Anything else before we adjourn?

12 [No response]

13 All right. Thank you, all.

14 COURTROOM DEPUTY: All rise.
